SIXTH SCHEDULE

PART II

PROVISIONS AS TO CERTIFICATES UNDER THE LICENSING (SCOTLAND)
ACTS, 1903 TO 1934, IN SUSPENSE BY REASON OF WAR CIRCUMSTANCES.

Restoration to full force of certificates in suspense.

- 1 Subject to the provisions of the next succeeding paragraph as to certificates for inns and hotels or public houses in cases in which it is certified that the war circumstances included the destruction of the premises or serious damage thereto, where after the passing of this Act the holder of a certificate which is for the time being in suspense desires to resume the business carried on in the premises in respect of which it was granted, he may give notice in writing to that effect to the clerk of the licensing court, and from the time of his giving such notice the certificate shall be in force for all purposes.
- 2 In such a case as aforesaid, before a notice for the purposes of the preceding paragraph is given as respects a certificate for an inn and hotel or a public house, plans of such works as are reasonably necessary to secure the proper conduct of the business must have been submitted to the licensing court and approved by them, and the licensing court must have signified their satisfaction that the works have been executed in accordance with the plans approved.
- 3 Where a certificate is deemed to have been in suspense but the business carried on in the premises in respect of which it was granted has been resumed before the passing of this Act, the certificate shall be deemed to have been in force for all purposes from the time of the resumption of the business unless it had previously been forfeited or become null and void under the Licensing Acts.
- 4 Where a removal of a certificate for the time being in suspense is authorised, it shall be in force for all purposes from the time of the authorisation of the removal, and where the holder of a certificate removal of which has been authorised desires to resume business in the premises specified in the certificate he may give notice in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Part of this Schedule in like manner as if the certificate were still in suspense and the said provisions shall apply accordingly.
- 5 A certificate in force for all purposes after being in suspense shall, unless previously forfeited or becoming null and void under the Licensing Acts, be and be deemed to have been in force until the twenty-eighth day of May next following the first April half yearly meeting of the licensing Court after the time when the certificate ceased to be in suspense.
