1 Extension of powers to grant pensions to persons employed for the purposes of Greenwich Hospital.

- (1) The powers conferred on the Admiralty by section twenty of the ^{M1}Greenwich Hospital Act, 1865, as extended by section eight of the ^{M2}Greenwich Hospital Act, 1872, shall extend and be deemed to have extended so as to include power—
 - (a) to grant from the funds of Greenwich Hospital such pensions or pecuniary benefits as the Admiralty think fit to persons employed for the purposes of Greenwich Hospital, or to their legal personal representatives, [^{F1}widows, surviving civil partners] or dependants; and
 - (b) to contribute towards the payment by any other authority or person of pensions or pecuniary benefits to persons who have been employed as aforesaid, or to their legal personal representatives, [^{F2}widows, surviving civil partners] or dependants.
- (2) The said powers shall, in the case of persons who retire after the passing of this Act from such employment as aforesaid, also extend so as to include power to permit the allocation, to such extent and subject to such conditions as the Admiralty may
