1 Appeals against rejection of war pension claims made in respect of members of the naval, military or air forces.

- (1) Where any claim in respect of the disablement of any person made under any such Royal Warrant, Order in Council or Order of His Majesty as is administered by the Minister [<sup>F1</sup>or under a scheme made under section 1 of the Polish Resettlement Act 1947] is rejected by the Minister on the ground that the injury on which the claim is based—
  - (a) is not attributable to [<sup>F2</sup>any relevant service]; and
  - (b) does not fulfil the following conditions, namely, that it existed before or arose during [<sup>F2</sup>any relevant service] and has been and remains aggravated thereby;

the Minister shall notify the claimant of his decision, specifying that it is made on that ground, and thereupon an appeal shall lie to [<sup>F3</sup>the appropriate tribunal] on the issue whether the claim was rightly rejected on that ground.

- (2) Where, for the purposes of any such claim as aforesaid, the injury on which the claim is based is accepted by the Minister as fulfilling the conditions specified in paragraph (b) of the last foregoing subsection but not as attributable to [<sup>F2</sup>any relevant service], the Minister shall notify the claimant of his decision, specifying that the injury is so accepted, and thereupon an appeal shall lie to the [<sup>F4</sup>appropriate tribunal] on the issue whether the injury was attributable to such service.
- (3) Where any claim in respect of the death of any person made under any such Royal Warrant, Order in Council [<sup>F5</sup>, Order of Her Majesty or scheme] as aforesaid is rejected by the Minister on the ground that neither of the following conditions is fulfilled, namely—
- (a) that the death of that person was due to or hastened by an injury which was attributable to [<sup>F2</sup>any relevant service];
  - (b) that the death was due to or hastened by the aggravation by [<sup>F2</sup>any relevant service] of an injury which existed before or arose during [<sup>F2</sup>any relevant service];

the Minister shall notify the claimant of his decision, specifying that it is made on that ground, and thereupon an appeal shall lie to the [<sup>F6</sup>appropriate tribunal] on the issue whether the claim was rightly rejected on that ground.

[<sup>F7</sup>(3A) The last foregoing subsection shall not apply to any claim made under any such Royal Warrant, Order in Council [<sup>F5</sup>, Order of Her Majesty or scheme] as aforesaid in respect of the death of a person who dies after the expiration of the period of seven years beginning with the end of [<sup>F8</sup> . . . [<sup>F9</sup>any relevant service] of that person, but where any such claim is rejected by the Minister on the ground that neither of the following conditions is fulfilled, namely—

- (a) that the death of that person was due to or substantially hastened by an injury which was attributable to [<sup>F9</sup>any relevant service];
- (b) that the death was due to or substantially hastened by the aggravation by [<sup>F9</sup>any relevant service] of an injury which existed before or arose during [<sup>F9</sup>any relevant service];

the Minister shall notify the claimant of his decision, specifying that it is made on that ground, and thereupon an appeal shall lie to the [<sup>F10</sup>appropriate tribunal] on the issue whether the claim was rightly rejected on that ground.]

- (4) Where, in connection with the determination, for the purposes of any such claim as if referred to in the foregoing provisions of this section, of—
- (i) the date by reference to which the rank of the disabled or deceased person is to be determined, or
  - (ii) in the case of a claim by or in respect of a widow, widower [<sup>F11</sup>surviving civil partner,], wife, [<sup>F12</sup>husband, civil partner] or child, the date before which any marriage [<sup>F13</sup>or civil partnership] or any birth, legitimation or adoption of a child must have taken place [<sup>F14</sup>or been formed], it is contended that, as the result of a particular period of [<sup>F2</sup>any relevant service], the disabled or deceased person suffered aggravation of the injury on which the claim is based, being aggravation which in the case of death persisted until death, the Minister shall, if he rejects the said contention, notify the claimant of his decision, and thereupon an appeal shall lie to the [<sup>F15</sup>appropriate tribunal] on the issue whether, as

2 Appeals against rejection of war pension claims made in respect of mariners, pilots, etc.

- (1) Where any claim in respect of the disablement or death of any person made under any scheme made under section three, section four or section five of the <sup>M1</sup>Pensions (Navy, Army, Air Force and Mercantile Marine) Act 1939, as amended by the <sup>M2</sup>Pensions (Mercantile Marine) Act 1942, is rejected by the Minister on either or both of the following grounds, namely—
  - (a) that the disablement or death of the said person is not directly attributable to a war injury, war risk injury or detention;
  - (b) that the case is not one in which—
    - (i) the said person is to be treated for the purpose of the said section three as having sustained the injury or suffered the detention by reason of his service as a mariner in a British ship; or

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Pensions Appeal Tribunals Act 1943. (See end of Document for details)

- (ii) the said person is to be treated for the purpose of the said section four as having sustained the injury or suffered the detention by reason of his service; or
- (iii) the injury was sustained in the circumstances specified in a scheme made under the said section five or the detention was caused by reason of his service in a ship forming part of His Majesty's navy;

the Minister shall notify the claimant of his decision, specifying the ground or grounds of the rejection, and thereupon an appeal shall lie to the [<sup>F16</sup>appropriate tribunal] on the issue whether the claim was rightly rejected on that ground or those grounds.

- (2) Where the Minister rejects any such claim as aforesaid on one of the grounds specified in the last foregoing subsection and an appeal is brought from his decision,—
  - (a) the Minister may notify the appellant before the hearing of the appeal that he also rejects the said claim on the other ground so specified, and thereupon the [<sup>F16</sup>appropriate tribunal] shall treat the appeal as an appeal on the issue whether the claim was rightly rejected on both the said grounds;
  - (b) unless the Minister notifies the appellant as aforesaid, he shall not be entitled, if the appeal is allowed, subsequently to reject the said claim on the said other ground.

3 Appeals against rejection of war pension claims made in respect of civil defence volunteers and other civilians.

- (1) Where any claim in respect of the incapacity for work, disablement or death of any person made under any scheme made under section one of the <sup>M3</sup>Personal Injuries (Emergency Provisions) Act 1939 is rejected by the Minister on the ground that the incapacity for work or the disablement was not caused by, or the death was not the direct result of, a war injury, or, in the case of a civil defence volunteer, a war service injury, the Minister shall notify the claimant of his decision, specifying that it is made on that ground, and thereupon an appeal shall lie to the [<sup>F17</sup>appropriate tribunal] on the issue whether the claim was rightly rejected on that ground.
- (2) Where an appeal is brought under the last foregoing subsection in any case where the Minister has refused to certify an injury sustained by a civil defence volunteer as a war service injury or has revoked such a certificate, the [<sup>F17</sup>appropriate tribunal] shall consider whether it is a physical injury (as defined by section five of the <sup>M4</sup>Pensions (Mercantile Marine) Act 1942) which arose out of and in the course of the performance by the volunteer of his duties as a member of the civil defence organisation to which he belonged at the time when the injury was sustained, and (except in the case of a war

4 Appeals in cases where award is withheld or reduced on ground of serious negligence or misconduct.

- (1) Where, in the case of any such claim as is referred to in section one, section two or section three of this Act in respect of the incapacity for work, disablement or death of any person, the Minister withholds or reduces the award on the ground that the injury or detention on which the claim is based was caused or contributed to by the serious negligence or misconduct of the said person or, as the case may be, that his death was so caused or contributed to, the Minister shall notify the claimant of his decision, specifying that it is made on that ground, and thereupon an appeal shall lie to the <sup>F18</sup>appropriate tribunal] on the issue whether the injury or detention or, as the case may be, the death was so caused or contributed to.
- (2) Where an appeal is brought under this Act on any of the issues specified in section one, section two or section three, and the Minister notifies the appellant before the hearing of the appeal that, if the appeal is allowed, he intends to withhold or reduce the award on the ground specified in the last foregoing subsection, the <sup>F18</sup>appropriate tribunal] shall, if they allow the appeal, determine the issue specified in that subsection, and unless the Minister notifies the appellant as aforesaid, he shall not be entitled, if the appeal is allowed, to withhold or reduce the award on the said ground.

5 Appeals against assessment of extent of disablement.

- (1) Where, in the case of any such claim as is referred to in section one, section two or section three of this Act in respect of the disablement of any person, the Minister makes an interim assessment of the degree of the disablement, he shall notify the claimant thereof and . . . . .<sup>F19</sup> an appeal shall lie to the <sup>F20</sup>appropriate tribunal] from the interim assessment . . . . .<sup>F19</sup> and from any subsequent interim assessment, and the <sup>F20</sup>appropriate tribunal] on any such appeal may uphold the Minister's assessment or may [<sup>F21</sup>alter the assessment in one or both of the following ways, namely—

- (a) by increasing or reducing the degree of disablement it specifies; and
- (b) by reducing the period for which the assessment is to be in force.]

In [<sup>F22</sup>this section] the expression “interim assessment” means any assessment other than such a final assessment as is referred to in the next following subsection.

- (2) Where, in the case of any such claim as is referred to in section one, section two or section three of this Act in respect of the disablement of any person, it appears to the Minister that the circumstances of the case permit a final settlement of the question to what extent, if any, the said person is disabled, and accordingly—

- (a) he decides that there is no disablement or that the disablement has come to an end or, in the case of any such claim as is referred to in section three of this Act, that the disablement is not or is no longer serious and prolonged; or
- (b) he makes a final assessment of the degree or nature of the disablement;

he shall notify the claimant of the decision or assessment, stating that it is a final one, and thereupon an appeal shall lie to the [<sup>F23</sup>appropriate tribunal] on the following issues, namely—

- (i) whether the circumstances of the case permit a final settlement of the question aforesaid;
- (ii) whether the Minister's decision referred to in paragraph (a) hereof or, as the case may be, the final assessment of the degree or nature of the disablement, was right;

and the [<sup>F23</sup>appropriate tribunal] on any such appeal may set aside the said decision or assessment on the ground that the circumstances of the case do not permit of such a final settlement, or may uphold that decision or assessment, or may make such final assessment of the degree or nature of the disablement as they think proper, which may be either higher or lower than the Minister's assessment, if any [<sup>F24</sup>and if the [<sup>F23</sup>appropriate tribunal] so set aside the Minister's decision or assessment they may, if they think fit, make such interim assessment of the degree or nature of the disablement, to be in force until such date not later than two years after the making of the [<sup>F25</sup>appropriate tribunal's] assessment, as they think proper].

- (2) An appeal shall lie under this section at the instance of the person who appealed to the <sup>F52</sup>[Pensions Appeal Tribunal for Scotland or Northern Ireland] or of the Minister.
- (3) If each of the parties to <sup>F53</sup>an appeal under this section to a Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioner expresses the view that the decision appealed against was erroneous in point of law, the Commissioner may set aside the decision and refer the case to <sup>F54</sup>a Pensions Appeal Tribunal for Northern Ireland] with directions for its determination.
- (4) Where <sup>F55</sup>an appeal is made to a Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioner and] the Commissioner holds that the decision appealed against was erroneous in point of law, he shall set it aside and—
- (a) he shall have power—
    - (i) to give the decision which he considers <sup>F56</sup>the Pensions Appeal Tribunal for Northern Ireland] should have given, if he can do so without making fresh or further findings of fact; or
    - (ii) if he considers it expedient, to make such findings and give such decision as he considers appropriate in the light of them;
  - and
  - (b) in any other case he shall refer the case to <sup>F57</sup>a Pensions Appeal Tribunal for Northern Ireland] with directions for its determination.
- <sup>F58</sup>[ Section 12 of the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (proceedings on appeal (4A) to Upper Tribunal) applies in relation to appeals to the Upper Tribunal under this section as it applies in relation to appeals to it under section 11 of that Act, but as if references to the First-tier Tribunal were references to the Pensions Appeal Tribunal for Scotland or Northern Ireland.]
- (5) Subject to any direction of <sup>F59</sup>the Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioner], a reference under subsection (3) or (4)(b) above shall be to a differently constituted <sup>F60</sup>[Pensions Appeal Tribunal for Scotland or Northern Ireland].
- <sup>F61</sup>[ No appeal lies under this section to the Upper Tribunal without the leave of the (5A) Pensions Appeal Tribunal for Scotland or Northern Ireland concerned, or of the Upper Tribunal, on an application by the party.]
- (6) No appeal lies under this section <sup>F62</sup>to a Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioner] without the leave—

6C Appeals from Commissioner

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) below, a party to an appeal under section 6A of this Act may appeal on a question of law to the appropriate court from a decision of [<sup>F80</sup>a Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioner] under that section.
- (2) No appeal under this section shall lie from a decision except—
  - (a) with the leave of the Commissioner who gave the decision or, in a case prescribed by regulations, [<sup>F80</sup>a Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioner] selected in accordance with regulations; or
  - (b) if he refuses leave, with the leave of the appropriate court.
- (3) On an application to [<sup>F80</sup>a Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioner] for leave under this section it shall be the duty of the Commissioner to specify as the appropriate court—
  - (a) the Court of Session if it appears to him that the person who appealed to [<sup>F81</sup>the tribunal concerned] is ordinarily resident in Scotland;
  - (b) the Court of Appeal in Northern Ireland if it appears to him that that person is ordinarily resident in Northern Ireland;
  - (c) the Court of Appeal if it appears to him that that person is ordinarily resident elsewhere.

But if it appears to the Commissioner, having regard to the circumstances of the case and in particular to the convenience of the persons who may be parties to the proposed appeal, that he should specify a different court mentioned in paragraphs (a) to (c) above as the appropriate court, it shall be his duty to specify that court as the appropriate court.

- (4) Regulations may make provision as to—
  - (a) the manner in which, and the time within which, applications to [<sup>F80</sup>a Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioner] for leave to appeal under this section must be made;
  - (b) the procedure for dealing with such applications.

by procedure regulations under [<sup>F83</sup> Article 16 of the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Order 1998 <sup>F84</sup>] for the purposes of proceedings under [<sup>F85</sup> that Order] before a Commissioner.

- (2) The Lord Chancellor may by regulations provide—
- (a) for officers authorised by the Lord Chancellor <sup>F86</sup> . . . to make any determinations which fall to be made by [<sup>F87</sup> Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioners];
  - (b) for the procedure to be followed by such officers in making such determinations;
  - (c) for the manner in which such determinations by such officers may be called in question.
- (3) Regulations prescribing the procedure to be followed in cases before [<sup>F82</sup> a Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioner] shall provide that any hearing shall be in public except in so far as the Commissioner for special reasons otherwise directs.
- (4) If it appears to [<sup>F82</sup> a Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioner] that a matter before him involves a question of fact of special difficulty, he may direct that in dealing with that matter he shall have the assistance of one or more experts.

In this subsection “expert” means a person appearing to the Commissioner to have knowledge or experience which would be relevant in determining the question of fact of special difficulty.

- (5) If it appears to the [<sup>F88</sup> the Chief Social Security Commissioner appointed under the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 <sup>F89</sup>](or, in the case of his inability to act, to such other of the [<sup>F90</sup> Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioners] as he may have nominated to act for that purpose) that—
- (a) an application for leave under section 6A(6)(c) of this Act, or
  - (b) an appeal,
- falling to be heard by one of the [<sup>F90</sup> Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioners] involves a question of law of special difficulty, he may direct that the application or appeal be dealt with, not by that Commissioner alone, but by a tribunal consisting of two or more [<sup>F90</sup> Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioners].

If the decision of the tribunal is not unanimous, the decision of the majority shall be the decision of the tribunal; and the presiding Commissioner shall have a casting vote if the votes are equally divided.

- (6) Regulations may make provision with respect to—
- (a) the correction of accidental errors in any decision or record of a decision of [<sup>F82</sup> a Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioner] under this Act; and
  - (b) the setting aside of any such decision in a case where it appears just to set the decision aside on the ground that—
    - (i) additional evidence is available;
    - (ii) a document relating to the proceedings in which the decision was given was not sent to, or was not received at an appropriate time by, a party to the proceedings or a party’s representative or was not received at an appropriate time by the Commissioner; or
    - (iii) a party to the proceedings or a party’s representative was not present at a hearing related to the proceedings.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Pensions Appeal Tribunals Act 1943. (See end of Document for details)

- (7) Nothing in subsection (6) above shall be construed as derogating from any power to correct errors or set aside decisions which is exercisable apart from regulations made by virtue of that subsection.
- (8) Except so far as it may be applied in relation to <sup>F91</sup> . . . Northern Ireland by regulations, Part 1 of the Arbitration Act 1996 shall not apply to any proceedings under this Act.
- (9) <sup>F92</sup> . . . . . ]

7 Application of Act to past decisions and assessments.

- (1) This Act shall apply in cases where any such decision of the Minister as is referred to in section one, section two, section three or section four of this Act has been made before the passing of this Act, and in cases where any such decision or assessment as is referred to in section five of this Act has been made before that section comes into operation, and no further notification of any such decision or assessment as is referred to in any of the said sections shall be necessary in any such case, but the Minister shall take such steps as he considers necessary to bring the rights of appeal conferred by this Act to the notice of persons affected by any such decision or assessment.
- (2) [<sup>F93</sup>Subject to subsection (2A) of this section,]any decision of the Minister given before the passing of this Act which corresponds, apart from any difference arising from the terms of the Royal Warrant, Order in Council or Order of His Majesty, as the case may be, in force when the decision was made, with such a decision as is referred to in section one of this Act, shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Act, to be such a decision, and an appeal shall lie therefrom accordingly.

Status: Point in time view as at 12/04/2010.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Pensions Appeal Tribunals Act 1943. (See end of Document for details)

[<sup>F94</sup>(2A) Subsection (2) of this section shall not apply in relation to any decision given by the Minister before the passing of this Act which corresponds, apart from any difference of the kind referred to in that subsection, with such a decision as is referred to in section 1 of this Act in respect of claims made under the scheme referred to in that section.]

12 Interpretation.

- (1) In this Act the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them:—

[<sup>F109</sup>“the appropriate tribunal” means the First-tier Tribunal or a Pensions Appeal Tribunal for Scotland or Northern Ireland (and see paragraphs 6 to 6B of the Schedule for determining which of those tribunals hears an appeal under this Act);]

“civil defence organisation” means any organisation established for civil defence purposes which is declared by a scheme made under the <sup>M7</sup>Personal Injuries (Emergency Provisions) Act 1939, to be a civil defence organisation for the purpose of the said Act and the scheme;

“civil defence volunteer” and “war service injury” have the same meanings as in the <sup>M8</sup>Personal Injuries (Emergency Provisions) Act 1939, as amended by the <sup>M9</sup>Pensions (Mercantile Marine) Act 1942;

<sup>F112</sup>

“His Majesty’s naval, military or air forces” include . . . <sup>F113</sup>any . . . <sup>F113</sup>auxiliary service of any of His Majesty’s said forces;

“injury”, in relation to any such claim as is referred to in section one of this Act, includes wound or disease;

[<sup>F114</sup>“Northern Ireland Social Security Commissioner” means the Chief Social Security Commissioner or any other Social Security Commissioner appointed under the Social Security Administration (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 [<sup>F115</sup>, and includes a tribunal of Commissioners constituted under section 6D(5) of this Act];]

“war risk injury” means an injury falling within section one of the <sup>M10</sup>Pensions (Mercantile Marine) Act 1942, except that, in relation to the persons referred to in subsection (4) of section four of that Act, it means an injury falling within the said section one as amended by the said subsection (4);

[<sup>F119</sup>“relevant service” in relation to any claim made under any such Royal Warrant, Order in Council [<sup>F120</sup>, Order of Her Majesty or scheme] as is referred to in section one of this Act means any service which, under that Royal
