3 Power to raise money to be paid for equality of exchange or partition.

For the purpose of raising any sum or sums of money which may be agreed to be paid for equality of exchange or partition, or for the purchase of any freehold land, or of any outstanding leasehold interest in land, belonging to any ecclesiastical corporation, over and above the money then belonging to such corporation and available for any such purpose as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for every such corporation, with such approval and consents as aforesaid, to borrow the same upon the security and to execute a mortgage or mortgages of all or any part or parts of the hereditaments belonging to such corporation, for any terms or terms of years, redeemable on payment of the principal sum or sums so borrowed, with interest for the same; and the principal money so secured may be discharged out of any principal monies belonging or accruing to such corporation under the said recited Act or this Act or otherwise.

4 Power to enter into and vary contracts and accept surrenders.

For all or any of such purposes as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for every such ecclesiastical corporation, with such approval and consents as aforesaid, from time to time to enter into, make, and execute such contracts and agreements, and to grant such licences or permissions to search for mines, and such other powers preliminary to or consequent upon any such contract, and also to alter, vary, or rescind the same, and accept surrenders of any lease or leases, and release any lessee or lessees in respect of breaches of covenant, in such manner and for such considerations as to the said Commissioners shall appear advisable; and the lands with respect to which any contract shall be abandoned or surrender taken shall be subject to all the powers and provisions of the said recited Act and of this Act; and all contracts and agreements so entered into by any person as aforesaid in his corporate capacity shall be binding upon his successors, and may be enforced against them.

5 Provision for payment of expenses of leases.

Any ecclesiastical corporation as aforesaid, with the approval of the said Commissioners, may charge the amount of the expenses to be incurred in carrying into effect any of the provisions of the said recited Act or of this Act on any lands, tenements, or hereditaments belonging to such corporation; but so nevertheless that the charge upon such lands shall be lessened in every year following by one twentieth part at the least of the whole original charge thereon.

7 This Act not to repeal powers under former Acts, 1843 c. 37 &c.

Provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall repeal any of the powers or authorities vested in the said Commissioners by the New Parishes Act 1843 or in any other Act relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with respect to or over lands, tithes, rentcharge, tenements, and other hereditaments vested or liable to be vested in them, or to repeal or alter any of the powers or authorities contained in any of the Acts now in force for or relating to the enfranchisement of copyholds, or in any of the Acts for the inclosure of commons or other lands or grounds, or in any of the Church Building Acts, so far as any of such powers or authorities apply to or affect the estates of ecclesiastical corporations; but the powers and authorities contained in this Act shall be considered cumulative or alternative to the powers and authorities contained in the said several other Acts herein-before referred to.

8 On sale or purchase of part of estate held under a lease the rent to be apportioned.

Upon the sale or purchase on behalf of any ecclesiastical corporation of the estate or interest of any lessee in a part only of the lands comprised in any lease, whereby the leasehold interest in the land so sold or purchased shall become extinguished in the reversion, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, by a memorandum in writing under their common seal, which may be endorsed on such lease, to apportion the rent reserved thereby, and declare what part thereof shall continue payable thereunder; and thereupon such apportioned part of the rent shall be payable as if the same had been the rent originally reserved in respect of the lands not sold or purchased; and such apportionment shall be valid and binding upon or against all persons interested in such last-mentioned lands; and where the rent originally reserved was an ancient and accustomed rent, the part so continuing payable shall be deemed and taken to be the ancient and accustomed rent for the lands not sold or purchased; and the reservations, covenants, and agreements contained in such lease, and the powers and authorities of any such ecclesiastical corporation, so far as the same shall be applicable to the lands not sold or purchased, shall remain in full force as if such sale or purchase had not been made.

9 No lease to be granted of land acquired under the Act, except at rackrent.

No lease of any lands purchased or acquired, or in which the estate or interest of a lessee, or of a holder of copyhold or customary land, shall be purchased or acquired by any ecclesiastical corporation under this Act, shall (except under the express power contained in the ^{M1}Ecclesiastical Leasing Act 1842 or in this Act,) be made or granted otherwise than from year to year, or for a term of years in possession, not exceeding fourteen years, at the best annual rent that can be reasonably gotten, without fine, and the lessee not to be made punishable for waste or exempted from liability in respect of waste.
