19 Gross rent charge may be apportioned on gated or stinted pastures.

Where a gross rentcharge has been made payable in respect of the tithes of any gated or stinted pasture, and such gates or stints are rated to the relief of the poor, the Commissioners may by the instrument of apportionment to be made of such rentcharge, or by a supplemental award and apportionment, where an apportionment shall have been already made, upon the application in writing of the person entitled to such rentcharge, or of any owner of a gate or stint, apportion such gross rentcharge pro rata upon the gates or stints: and after such apportionment or supplemental award and apportionment the owner of such rentcharge shall have the same powers for the recovery of any arrears thereof, by distress on the goods and chattels of the person rated to the relief of the poor in respect of the gates or stints the rentcharge upon which is in arrear, as are given by the said recited Acts for the recovery of rentcharge in arrear, and such powers of distress may be exercised upon the goods and chattels of such person, whether found upon the said pasture or elsewhere.

[^{F13}20 Rentcharge on commons may be commuted for a part of the land, or redeemed.

In every other case in which a gross rentcharge is charged upon any land subject to common rights, or held or enjoyed in common during the whole of the year, the Commissioners shall, upon the application in writing of the person entitled to such rentcharge, or of any person liable to pay the same or any part thereof, convene a meeting of the owners of such land and persons liable to pay such rentcharge, of which twenty-one days notice shall be given in such manner as to the Commissioners shall seem fit; and the majority in value of the persons attending such meeting may determine whether such rentcharge shall be commuted for an equivalent part of the land on which it is chargeable, or be redeemed for a sum equal to twenty-five times the amount of such rentcharge, to be paid by a time to be limited by the Commissioners, and may further determine, if the rentcharge is to be redeemed, whether the redemption money shall be raised by rate on the persons liable to such rentcharge, or by sale of a portion of such land: Provided always, that, if no determination be come to at such meeting, the Commissioners may proceed to commute the rentcharge for land as herein-after provided.]

29 Expenses of recovering rentcharge.

If a rentcharge shall at any time be in arrear and unpaid, and in order to enforce payment thereof it shall become necessary for the person entitled to the same to give notice of his intention to distrain upon the lands liable to the payment thereof for the arrears of the said rentcharge, according to the provisions of the said recited Acts, the owner of the rentcharge shall in all cases be entitled to two shillings and sixpence for and in respect of each notice which shall have been so issued, and such sum shall be deemed and taken to be part of the rentcharge which is in arrear and unpaid, and shall be recoverable accordingly, in like manner as the said arrears of rentcharge are recoverable.

30 Notice of intention to distrain may be sent by post.

Notice of intention to distrain may be given in the manner provided by the said recited Acts, or by sending it by the post in a registered letter to the office or usual place of abode of the person to whom the same is addressed.

[^{F19}31 Commissioners may order a rentcharge not exceeding 15*l.* to be redeemed before apportionment.

Where, under any agreement or award which has been or hereafter shall be confirmed by the Commissioners, the amount of the rentcharge agreed or awarded to be paid instead of the tithes of any parish, and which shall not have been apportioned, shall not exceed the sum of fifteen pounds, the Commissioners may, if they shall see fit, (and without the consents of the owner or owners of the lands chargeable with the said rentcharge, or of the person or persons for the time being entitled to the receipt thereof,) by an order under their hands and seal, direct that such rentcharge shall be redeemed by the payment by the owners of the lands chargeable therewith, within such time as the Commissioners shall by such order direct and appoint, of a sum equal to twenty-five times the amount of such rentcharge.]
