Annuities Redemption

Amendment of 36 & 37 Vict. c. 57 so far as regards permanent charges on the Consolidated Fund payable to charities.

F

- (1) The Treasury may in pursuance of the Consolidated Fund (Permanent Charges Redemption) Act 1873, contract from time to time with the Charity Commissioners for the redemption of all or any of the annuities under that Act which are payable for charitable purposes in England or Wales, and the money or securities paid or transferred for such redemption may be paid or transferred to [F10 the official custodian for charities] in pursuance of such contract, and upon such payment or transfer the annuities to which the contract refers shall cease to be charged on and payable out of the Consolidated Fund or moneys provided by Parliament, so however that any proportionate part of any such annuity which may be due up to the time of such payment or transfer shall be paid by the Treasury to the person entitled thereto.
- (2) [F11The M1Charities Act 1960,] shall apply in like manner as if any money paid or securities transferred to the said [F10 official custodian] in pursuance of this section for the redemption of any annuity had been paid or transferred in pursuance of an order of the Charity Commissioners under the said Acts, and were part of the endowment of the charity entitled to the annuity, and expressions in this section shall have the same meaning as in the said Acts.
- (3) The M2Consolidated Fund (Permanent Charges Redemption) Act 1883, which provides for the borrowing by the Treasury from the National Debt Commissioners of the capital sum or securities necessary for carrying into effect a contract for the redemption of any annuity as defined by the M3Consolidated Fund (Permanent Charges Redemption) Act 1873, shall apply for the purposes of this section.
