

Pluralities Acts Amendment Act 1885

1885 CHAPTER 54

- 10 Bishop may assign to each curate during the vacancy of a benefice a stipend not exceeding two hundred pounds a year or net income of benefice.

The bishop may assign to the curate, or curates, appointed to perform the duties of any benefice during the vacancy thereof such stipend or stipends as the bishop shall think fit, not exceeding for each such curate two hundred pounds a year, and in proportion, only, to the time of such vacancy, but so, nevertheless, that such stipend or stipends shall not exceed in the whole the net annual income of the benefice.
