

Wills Act 1837

1837 CHAPTER 26 7 Will 4 and 1 Vict

17 Executor shall be admitted a witness.

No person shall, on account of his being an executor of a will, be incompetent to be admitted a witness to prove the execution of such will, or a witness to prove the validity or invalidity thereof.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Wills Act 1837, Section 17.