The Corn Rent Annuities (Apportionment and Redemption) Rules 1951

5. For the purposes of any proceedings for, or relating to, the redemption of a corn rent annuity, the Commission may accept as sufficient evidence of the title to the annuity a statutory declaration by the person in receipt of the annuity or his solicitor, stating—

- (i) the nature and extent of such person's estate and interest in the annuity;
- (ii) the date and short particulars of the instrument under which his estate or interest is derived;
- (iii) the names and addresses of the trustees, if any, under such instrument; and
- (iv) whether there are any other interests affecting the annuity and, if so, the nature of them and how they arise:

Provided that the Commission if they deem it expedient may accept a statement in writing by some person in lieu of such a statutory declaration.
