(3) Where the Board of Trade or any person authorised by them for that purpose either generally or in a particular case or any officer of customs and excise has reason to suspect that any aircraft registered in the United Kingdom or in any other country or place to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends has been or is being or is about to be used in contravention of paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) of Article 7 of this Order or of Article 11 of this Order, the Board or that authorised person or that officer may request the operator and the commander of the aircraft or either of them to furnish such information relating to the aircraft and its cargo and produce for their or his inspection such documents so relating and such cargo as they or he may specify, and that authorised person or that officer may (either alone or accompanied and assisted by persons under his authority) board the aircraft and search it and, for that purpose, may use or authorise the use of reasonable force ; and, if the aircraft is then in the United Kingdom, the Board or any such authorised person or any such officer (either there and then or upon consideration of any information furnished or document or cargo produced in pursuance of such a request) may further request the operator and the commander or either of them to cause the aircraft to remain in the United Kingdom until notified that

Provided that this paragraph shall not prevent the arrest, or the issue or execution of a warrant for the arrest, of any person in respect of such an offence, or the remanding in custody or on bail, of any person charged with such an offence, notwithstanding that the necessary consent to the institution of proceedings for the offence has not been obtained.

Exercise of powers of the Minister

(6) References in this Order to countries or places to which the Southern Rhodesia Act 1965 extends shall, in relation to any foreign country or territory in which for the time being Her Majesty has jurisdiction, be construed as applying to that country or territory only to the extent that Her Majesty has jurisdiction in that behalf; and references in this Order to British protected persons shall, in relation to a person who has that status by virtue of his connection with such a foreign country or territory, be likewise construed as applying to him only to the extent that Her Majesty has jurisdiction in that behalf.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order revokes and replaces the Southern Rhodesia (United Nations Sanctions) Order 1968.

The Order restricts the importation into the United Kingdom of goods exported from Southern Rhodesia and the exportation from the United Kingdom of goods intended for Southern Rhodesia. It also imposes restrictions, both in the law of the United Kingdom and, in some respects, in the law of Southern Rhodesia, on the exportation from Southern Rhodesia of the former goods and the supply to Southern Rhodesia and the importation into Southern Rhodesia of the latter goods, as well as certain related activities and dealings, including the carriage of these goods in British ships or aircraft. The Order imposes restrictions with respect to undertakings in Southern Rhodesia for the manufacture or assembly of aircraft or motor vehicles. It authorises the imposition of restrictions on the transfer of certain property if this might facilitate an evasion of the Order. It restricts the use of certain aircraft operating to or from Southern Rhodesia and certain related civil aviation transactions. It authorises restrictions upon the entry into the United Kingdom of certain persons connected with Southern Rhodesia and it prohibits certain advertisements and similar activities aimed at encouraging emigration to Southern Rhodesia.

The Order also makes provision for the investigation of ships and aircraft that are suspected of contravening the Order and it confers powers to obtain evidence and information for the purposes of the Order.
