The Commons Registration (Disposal of Disputed Registrations) Regulations 1972

Foreshore boundaries

7. Where any land comprised in a registration, other than a provisional registration, was at the date of the registration bounded by the high water mark of medium tides for any distance which, in the opinion of the registration authority, it is practicable to show on the general scale of the register map, the authority may enter a note in the land section of the register substantially in accordance with Standard Entry 9 in Part 2 of the Schedule to these regulations, and, where the authority enters such a note, it shall mark the register map accordingly.
