1975 No. 1058

SOCIAL SECURITY

The Social Security (Non-Contributory Invalidity Pension)
Regulations 1975

Made - - - -	27th June 1975
Laid before Parliament	30th June 1975
Coming into Operation	20th July 1975

The Secretary of State for Social Services, in exercise of the powers conferred upon her by sections 36(3) to (7) and (9), 40(2), 49, 79(3), 80, 81, 82, 83(1), 84, 85, 119(3), 128(2), 129(1) and 131 of and Schedule 20 to the Social Security Act 1975(a), and of all other powers enabling her in that behalf, hereby makes the following regulations which are made in consequence of the provisions of the Social Security Benefits Act 1975(b) (re-enacted in the Social Security Act 1975) relating to non-contributory invalidity pension:—

PART I

GENERAL

Citation and commencement

1. These regulations may be cited as the Social Security (Non-Contributory Invalidity Pension) Regulations 1975 and shall come into operation on 20th July 1975.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, “the Act” means the Social Security Act 1975 and other expressions have the same meanings as in the Act.

(2) Reference in these regulations—

(a) to a person’s father, mother, son or daughter shall include reference to his step-father, step-mother, step-son or step-daughter, as the case may be, and a person shall be treated as such a relative if he would be such a relative if some person born illegitimate had been born legitimate;

(a) 1975 c. 14.

(b) 1975 c. 11.

(b) to any provision made by or contained in any enactment or instrument shall, except in so far as the context otherwise requires, be construed as a reference to that provision as amended or extended by any enactment or instrument and as including a reference to any provision which may re-enact or replace it, with or without modification.

(3) The rules for the construction of Acts of Parliament contained in the Interpretation Act 1889(a) shall apply for the purposes of the interpretation of these regulations as they apply for the purposes of the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

PART II

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS RELATING TO NON-CONTRIBUTORY INVALIDITY PENSION

Conditions relating to residence and presence

3.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this regulation, the prescribed conditions for the purposes of section 36(3) of the Act as to residence and presence in Great Britain in relation to any person in respect of any day shall be—

- (a) that he is present in Great Britain;
- (b) that he has been present in Great Britain for a period of, or periods amounting in the aggregate to, not less than 26 weeks in the 12 months immediately preceding that day; and
- (c) that he has been resident in Great Britain for a period of or periods amounting in the aggregate to—
  - (i) 10 years in the 20 years immediately preceding that day; or
  - (ii) 10 years since his birth if he is under 20 years of age on that day.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a) or (b) of this regulation, a person who is absent from Great Britain on any day shall be treated as being present in Great Britain if on that day he is—

- (a) a merchant seaman within the meaning of the Family Allowances (Qualifications) Regulations 1969(b) as amended (c); or
- (b) a member of the forces within the meaning of those regulations; or
- (c) living with such a member of the forces and is that member's spouse, son, daughter, father, father-in-law, mother or mother-in-law.

(3) Where a person has been entitled to non-contributory invalidity pension for any day, the conditions set out in paragraph (1) of this regulation shall not apply to that person in respect of any subsequent day of incapacity for work falling within the same period of interruption of employment; and in determining whether any such subsequent day falls within the same period of interruption of employment the provisions of section 17(1) of the Act (days for which unemployment, sickness or invalidity benefit are payable) and of any regulations made under section 17(1) or (2) shall have effect for the purposes of non-contributory invalidity pension as they have effect for the purposes of invalidity benefit.

(a) 1889 c. 63.

(b) S.I. 1969/212 (1969 I, p. 543).

(c) There is no amendment relevant to the subject matter of this paragraph.

Days for which persons are to be regarded as incapable of work for the purposes of non-contributory invalidity pension

4.—(1) For all the purposes of non-contributory invalidity pension a person shall not be treated as incapable of work for any day unless that day would be a day of incapacity for work under the provisions of section 17(1)(a) of the Act or regulation 3, 5 or 7(1)(f) or (g) of the Social Security (Unemployment, Sickness and Invalidity Benefit) Regulations 1975(a) (provisions for determining whether a day is one of incapacity for work for the purposes of sickness or invalidity benefit); and in the case of a person who has not attained retiring age, Sunday or the day which would be substituted for Sunday under the provisions of regulation 4 of the said regulations of 1975 shall (except for the purposes of the requirements of section 36(1) of the Act as to the period for which a person must have been incapable of work as those apply in the case of a person who has not previously been entitled to non-contributory invalidity pension) not be treated as a day on which that person is incapable of work.

(2) In determining for the purposes of section 36(1) of the Act whether a person has been incapable of work for 196 consecutive days, a day shall not be treated as a day on which that person was incapable of work if on that day he was absent from Great Britain or undergoing imprisonment or detention in legal custody.

Circumstances in which persons are to be regarded as receiving full-time education

5.—(1) A person shall not be treated as receiving full-time education for the purposes of non-contributory invalidity pension—

(a) if he is not less than 16 or more than 19 years of age, for any period unless it is one in respect of which the Secretary of State certifies that he is receiving full-time education by attendance at an establishment recognised by the Secretary of State as being, or as comparable to, a university, college or school; or

(b) if he is over the age of 19, for any period.

(2) In determining the duration of a period of full-time education under paragraph (1)(a) of this regulation any temporary interruption of that education may be disregarded.

Modification of section 36(1) of the Act in the case of a person who has previously been entitled to non-contributory invalidity pension

6. In the case of a person who has previously been entitled to non-contributory invalidity pension, the requirements of section 36(1) of the Act as to the period for which a person must have been incapable of work shall be deemed to be satisfied on any day in a period of interruption of employment if they have been satisfied on any earlier day in that period of interruption of employment; and in determining whether that day and the earlier day fall within the same period of interruption of employment the provisions of section 17(1) of the Act (days for which unemployment, sickness or invalidity benefit are payable) and of any regulations made under section 17(1) or (2) shall have effect for the purposes of non-contributory invalidity pension as they have effect for the purposes of invalidity benefit.

(a) S.I. 1975/564 (1975 I, p. 2062).

Circumstances in which a person over pensionable age is to be treated as having been entitled to non-contributory invalidity pension immediately before attaining that age

7. A person who has attained pensionable age shall for the purposes of section 36(4) of the Act be treated as having been entitled to non-contributory invalidity pension immediately before attaining that age if immediately before attaining it he would have satisfied the conditions for entitlement to that pension but for the provisions of the Social Security (Overlapping Benefits) Regulations 1975(a).

Non-contributory invalidity pension for persons over retiring age

8. Where a person is entitled to non-contributory invalidity pension immediately before he attains retiring age he shall not be disentitled to that pension after he attains that age by reason only of the fact that he is not incapable of work or no longer satisfies the requirements of section 36(1) of the Act as to the period for which a person must have been incapable of work.

Increase of non-contributory invalidity pension for dependants

9. The provisions of Chapter III of Part II of the Act (increases for dependants) shall apply in relation to increases of non-contributory invalidity pension for child or adult dependants under section 49 of the Act as they apply to increases of invalidity pension for child or adult dependants.

Application of the Social Security (General Benefit) Regulations 1974 to non-contributory invalidity pension

10.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2) of this regulation, the provisions of the Social Security (General Benefit) Regulations 1974(b) specified in column (1) of Schedule 1 to these regulations shall apply to non-contributory invalidity pension as they apply to invalidity pension.

(2) Any reference in those regulations to—

- (a) the standard rate of increase shall have effect as a reference to the rate of increase of non-contributory invalidity pension, and
- (b) the amount of increase of benefit shall have effect as a reference to the amount of increase of non-contributory invalidity pension.

Application of the Social Security Benefit (Computation of Earnings) Regulations 1974 to non-contributory invalidity pension

11. The provisions of regulations 2 to 7 of the Social Security Benefit (Computation of Earnings) Regulations 1974(c) (calculation or estimation of the earnings of a person) shall apply to non-contributory invalidity pension as they apply to invalidity pension.

Disqualification for non-contributory invalidity pension

12. A person shall be disqualified for receiving non-contributory invalidity pension for such period not exceeding 6 weeks as may be determined in accordance with sections 97 to 104 of the Act if—

(a) S.I. 1975/554 (1975 I, p. 1918).
(c) S.I. 1974/2008 (1974 III, p. 7017).

(b) S.I. 1974/2079 (1974 III, p. 8113).

- (a) he has become incapable of work through his own misconduct, except that this disqualification shall not apply where the incapacity is due to venereal disease or, in the case of a woman who is not a wife, or being a wife, is separated from her husband, to pregnancy; or
- (b) he fails without good cause to comply with a notice in writing given by or on behalf of the Secretary of State requiring him to attend for and to submit himself to medical or other examination on a date not earlier than the third day after the day on which the notice was sent and at a time and place specified in that notice; or
- (c) he fails without good cause to attend for, or to submit himself to, medical or other treatment; provided that this disqualification shall not apply to any failure to attend for or to submit to vaccination or inoculation of any kind or to a surgical operation, unless the failure is a failure to attend for or to submit to a surgical operation of a minor character, and is unreasonable; or
- (d) he fails without good cause to observe any of the following rules of behaviour, namely:—
- (i) to refrain from behaviour calculated to retard his recovery, and to answer any reasonable enquiries (not being enquiries relating to medical examination, treatment or advice) by the Secretary of State or his officers directed to ascertaining whether he is doing so;
  - (ii) not to be absent from his place of residence without leaving word where he may be found;
  - (iii) to do no work for which remuneration is, or would ordinarily be, payable unless it is—
    - (aa) work which is undertaken under medical supervision as part of his treatment while he is a patient in or of a hospital or similar institution, or
    - (bb) work which is not so undertaken and which he has good cause for doing,and from which, in the case of work of either description his earnings, if any, are ordinarily not more than £7·00 a week.

Transitional provision relating to claims for non-contributory invalidity pension in respect of certain hospital in-patients

13. A person who on 20th November 1975 is an in-patient in a hospital or similar institution and unable to act and who but for this provision would be disqualified for the receipt of non-contributory invalidity pension on any day in the period 20th November 1975 to 18th February 1976 (both dates included) on which he is such an in-patient on account of failure to make a claim within the prescribed time, shall not be so disqualified if a claim for that pension is made on a day not later than 19th February 1976.

PART III

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations were made in consequence of the provisions of the Social Security Benefits Act 1975 (re-enacted in the Social Security Act 1975, a consolidating measure) relating to non-contributory invalidity pension ("the pension") and were made before the expiration of six months from the passing of the first mentioned Act. Accordingly, by virtue of the provisions of paragraphs 28(a) and 29 of Schedule 3 to the Social Security (Consequential Provisions) Act 1975 (c. 18) they are not required to be and have not been referred to the National Insurance Advisory Committee and they are not subject to the affirmative resolution procedure.

Part I of the Regulations relates to their citation, commencement and interpretation.

Part II of the Regulations contains miscellaneous provisions relating to residence and presence in Great Britain conditions (regulation 3); days for which persons are to be regarded as incapable of work for the purposes of the pension (regulation 4); circumstances in which persons are to be regarded as receiving full-time education (regulation 5); modification of the requirements in section 36(1) of the Social Security Act 1975 in the case of a person who has previously been entitled to the pension (regulation 6); circumstances in which a person over pensionable age (60 in the case of a woman, 65 in the case of a man) is to be treated as having been entitled to the pension before attaining that age (regulation 7); relaxed conditions for entitlement to the pension for certain persons over retiring age (65 in the case of a woman, 70 in the case of a man) (regulation 8); increase of the pension for dependants (regulation 9); the application of the Social Security (General Benefit) Regulations 1974 and the Social Security Benefit (Computation of Earnings) Regulations 1974 to the pension (regulations 10 and 11 and Schedule 1); and disqualification for the pension for misconduct or failure to undergo medical examination (regulation 12). This Part of the Regulations also contains a transitional provision relating to claims for the pension in the case of certain hospital in-patients (regulation 13).

Part III of the Regulations and Schedule 2 contain minor consequential amendments to other sets of Social Security Regulations.
