Power to require attendance of witnesses and production of documents, etc.

3.—(1) A tribunal may on the application of a party made either by notice to the Secretary of the Tribunals or at the hearing—

- (a) require a party to furnish in writing to another party further particulars of the grounds on which he relies and of any facts and contentions relevant thereto;

The hearing

5.—(1) Any hearing of or in connection with an appeal shall take place in public unless the tribunal on the application of a party decides that a private hearing is appropriate for the purpose of hearing evidence which relates to matters of such a nature that it would be against the interests of national security to allow the evidence to be given in public or hearing evidence from any person which in the opinion of the tribunal is likely to consist of information the disclosure of which would cause substantial injury to the undertaking of the appellant or of any undertaking in which he works for reasons other than its effect on negotiations with respect to any of the matters mentioned in section 29(1) of the 1974 Act.

(2) In cases to which the foregoing provisions of this Rule apply, a member of the Council on Tribunals or of its Scottish Committee in his capacity as such shall be entitled to attend the hearing.

- (b) a party did not receive notice of the proceedings leading to the decision; or
- (c) the decision was made in the absence of a party; or
