Whereas the status of association of Antigua with the United Kingdom is terminated as from 1st November 1981 (from which date it will be styled Antigua and Barbuda) and it is necessary or expedient in consequence of that event to amend or modify certain enactments as hereinafter provided:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers vested in Her in that behalf by section 13(2) and (3) and section 14 of the West Indies Act 1967(a), is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Citation and commencement

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Antigua and Barbuda Modification of Enactments Order 1981.

(2) This Order shall come into operation on 1st November 1981 (hereinafter called 'the appointed day').

British Nationality Acts

2.—(1) On and after the appointed day the British Nationality Acts 1948 to 1965 shall have effect as if in section 1(3) of the British Nationality Act 1948(b) (Commonwealth countries having separate citizenship) there were added at the end the words 'and Antigua and Barbuda'.

(2) Except as provided by article 3 of this Order, any person who immediately before the appointed day is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies shall on that day cease to be such a citizen if he becomes on that day a citizen of Antigua and Barbuda.

 (a) 1967 c. 4.

(b) 1948 c. 56.

(3) Section 6(2) of the British Nationality Act 1948 (registration as citizens of the United Kingdom and Colonies of women who have been married to such citizens) shall not apply to a woman by virtue of her marriage to a person who on the appointed day ceases to be such a citizen under paragraph (2) of this article, or who would have done so if living on the appointed day.

Retention of citizenship of United Kingdom and Colonies

3.—(1) A person shall not cease to be a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies under article 2(2) of this Order if he, his father or his father's father—or if his father or his father's father would, if living immediately before the commencement of the 1948 Act, have become a person naturalised in the United Kingdom and Colonies under section 32(6) of that Act (previous local naturalisation in a colony or protectorate) by virtue of having enjoyed the privileges of naturalisation in a relevant territory.

(2) In paragraph (1) of this article "relevant territory" means any territory which on the appointed day is a colony or an associated state, other than any territory which on that day is not a colony for the purposes of the 1948 Act as then in force (and accordingly does not include Antigua and Barbuda).

(3) Paragraph (1) of this article shall not apply to a woman by virtue of her registration as a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies if that registration was effected under section 6(2) of the 1948 Act (registration as citizens of the United Kingdom and Colonies of women who have been married to such citizens).

(4) A person shall not cease to be a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies under section 2(2) above if, immediately before the appointed day, he has the right of abode in the United Kingdom under the Immigration Act 1971.

(5) A woman who is a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies, and is the wife of such a citizen, shall not herself cease to be such a citizen under article 2(2) of this Order unless her husband does so.

(6) Part III of the 1948 Act (supplementary provisions) as in force from time to time, except section 23 (legitimated children), shall have effect for the purposes of this article as if this article were included in that Act.

(7) A person born out of wedlock and legitimated (within the meaning of section 23(2) of the 1948 Act) by the subsequent marriage of his parents shall be treated, for the purpose of determining whether he has by virtue of this Order ceased to be a citizen of the United Kingdom and Colonies, as if he had been born legitimate.

Consequential modifications of other enactments

4.—(1) On and after the appointed day the provisions specified in the Schedule to this Order shall have effect subject to the amendments specified respectively in that Schedule.

(2) Paragraph (1) of this article and the Schedule to this Order shall not extend to Antigua and Barbuda as part of its law.
