 - (ii) a badge which is oval in shape, with irregular edges, and depicting a pair of weighing scales (“the Scales of Justice”) surrounded by the words “The Prevention of Cruelty to Children”, surmounted by a coronet and superimposed upon a sword;
 - (iii) a badge which is oval in shape, with regular edges, and depicting a pair of weighing scales (“the Scales of Justice”) surrounded by the words “The Prevention of Cruelty to Children” and superimposed upon a sword.

G. I. de Deney,
Clerk of the Privy Council.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order is made under the Chartered Associations (Protection of Names and Uniforms) Act 1926. It protects under that Act the names “National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children” and “NSPCC Young League”, the designation “NSPCC”, and three badges described in the Order. The effect of the Order is that unauthorised use of the things protected (or ones so like them as to be mistaken for them) is an offence.
