Electors lists, etc.

General provisions as to electors lists

31.— (1) The electors lists shall be prepared in accordance with this Regulation and either Regulation 32 or 33 below.

(2) The electors lists shall be framed in separate parts for each parliamentary polling district, except that, where a parliamentary polling district is contained in more than one electoral area, there shall be a separate part of the electors lists for each part of the polling district which is contained in each electoral area.

(3) The requirement in paragraph (b) of section 10 of the Act of 1983(c) to include in the electors lists the qualifying address of a person appearing to the registration officer to be entitled to be registered shall not apply to an address—

- (a) to which paragraph (4) below applies, or
- (b) which is specified in an overseas elector's declaration in accordance with section 2(4) of the Act of 1985.

(4) This paragraph applies where it appears to the registration officer that—

- (b) a voluntary mental patient in his patient's declaration, has given an address—

- (i) at which that service voter or patient has resided, but

(5) Regulation 50 below applies to the electors lists as it applies to the register.

Electors lists prepared as draft register

32.— (1) The electors lists for each separate part referred to in Regulation

(a) Section 54(1) was amended by paragraph 14(a) of Schedule 4 to the Act of 1985.
 (b) Section 11(2) was substituted by paragraph 2 of Schedule 4 to the Act of 1985.

 - (ii) the names of those persons who appear to the registration officer to be entitled to be so registered but whose addresses are not included in the electors lists under Regulation 31(3) above where those names either are not included in the register in force or will not appear in the part of the new register corresponding to the part in which those names appear in the register in force; and
- (c) List C, which sets out—
 - (i) the names of those persons who no longer appear to the registration officer to be entitled to be registered as parliamentary or as local government electors or as both in respect of qualifying addresses for which they are registered in the register in force, together with those addresses, and

(3) The names in List B need not be numbered.

(4) The names in List C shall have opposite them their number in the register in force.

(5) If a person appearing to the registration officer as entitled to be registered will attain voting age before the end of the period of twelve months beginning with 16th February during which a register is to be used, but will not be of voting age on the first day of that period, the date on which he will attain that age shall be placed against his name in the electors lists.

(6) A notice under paragraph (4)(b) above—

- (a) shall be published by means of the registration officer posting a copy of it in some conspicuous place or places in the area for which he acts and may also be given in such other manner as he thinks fit for publicising it;

- (d) shall state that any claim in respect of which the notice was published is available for inspection at the registration officer’s office; and
- (e) shall specify the manner in which any objection to the claim may be made and that any such objection must be delivered to the registration officer not later than the last day of the month in which the notice is published.

(7) As soon as practicable after the publication of a notice under paragraph (4)(b) above, the registration officer shall supply free of charge to each person to whom he has supplied a copy of so much of the register as relates to a particular constituency under Regulation 53(2)(i) above a copy of so much of the list of claims kept under paragraph (4) above as relates to—

(2) If the registration officer is of opinion—

- (c) that a claim relates to a register which is no longer in force, he shall disallow the claim and shall so inform the person making the claim;
- (d) that a claim or objection cannot be allowed because—
 - (i) the matter has been concluded by the decision of a court, or
 - (ii) the particulars given in a claim or objection do not entitle the claimant or objector to succeed.

he may send to the person making the claim or objection a notice stating his opinion, the grounds for it and that he intends to disallow the claim or objection unless that person gives the registration officer notice within three days from the date of the registration officer's notice that he requires the claim or objection to be heard and, if he receives no such notice within that time, he may disallow the claim or objection.

(3) If after the expiry of the month in which the claims notice in respect of a claim has been published the registration officer is of opinion that the claim may be allowed without a hearing, he may allow the claim provided that no objection has been made to it, and shall so inform the person making the claim.

(4) Except where the registration officer allows or disallows a claim or objection under paragraph (2) or (3) above, he shall, as soon as practicable after the expiry of the month in which the claims notice in respect of a claim was published, send a notice, in the case of a claim, to the person making the claim and, in the case of an objection, to the objector and the person objected to, stating the time and place at which he proposes to hear the claim or objection; and the notice sent to a person objected to shall also state the name and address of the objector and the grounds of the objection.

(5) The time fixed for the hearing of a claim or objection shall not be earlier than the third day nor later than the fourteenth day after the date of the notice of hearing referred to in paragraph (4) above.

(6) The registration officer shall make available for inspection at his office the lists of claims and objections together with (when available) the time and place at which he proposes to hear any claim or objection.

(7) When a claim has been disposed of, the name and qualifying address of the claimant shall be deleted from the list of claims referred to in Regulation 58(4) above and the list of objections referred to in paragraph (1) above:

Provided that, where an objection has been disallowed before the disposal of the claim to which it relates the name and qualifying address of the claimant shall be deleted from the list of objections at the time when the objection is disallowed.

(8) For the purposes of this Regulation—

(a) the expression “claims notice” means a notice published under Regulation 58 above, and

(b) a particular claims notice is published in respect of a particular claim where the date of that notice is recorded against the name of that claimant in the list of claims kept by the registration officer in accordance with Regulation 58(4) above.

60. Regulation 43 above shall apply for the hearing of claims to be included in a register in force and objections to them as it applies for the hearing of claims and objections in respect of the electors lists.

(4) The returning officer shall make provision for the safe custody of every such ballot box.

89.— (1) If a postal voter has inadvertently dealt with his postal ballot paper in such manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper (referred to as “a spoilt postal ballot paper”) he may return (either by hand or by post) to the returning officer the spoilt postal ballot paper, the declaration of identity, the ballot paper envelope and the covering envelope.

(2) Where postal ballot papers for more than one election have been issued together under Regulation 78 above, the postal voter shall, if he exercises the entitlement conferred by paragraph (1) above, return all of the ballot papers so issued, whether spoilt or not.

(3) On receipt of the documents referred to in paragraph (1) and, where applicable, (2) above, the returning officer shall issue another postal ballot paper or, as the case may be, ballot papers except where those documents are received too late for another ballot paper (or ballot papers) to be returned before the close of the poll.

(6) The returning officer, as soon as practicable after cancelling those documents, shall make up those documents in a separate packet and shall seal the packet; and if on any subsequent occasion documents are cancelled as mentioned above, the sealed packet shall be opened and the additional cancelled documents included in it and the packet shall then be again made up and sealed.

Receipt of postal ballot papers

Receipt of covering envelope

90. The returning officer shall, immediately on receipt (whether by hand or by post) of a covering envelope before the close of the poll, place it unopened in

Opening of postal voters' ballot box

91.— (1) Each postal voters' ballot box shall be opened by the returning officer in the presence of the agents.

(2) So long as the returning officer ensures that there is at least one postal voters' ballot box for the reception of covering envelopes up to the time of the close of the poll, the other postal voters' ballot boxes may previously be opened by him.

(3) The returning officer shall give each candidate not less than 48 hours' notice in writing of the time and place of the opening of each postal voters' ballot box and the envelopes contained in it and of the number of agents the candidate may appoint under Regulation 80(2) above to be present at each opening.

(4) The returning officer shall provide a ballot box as a receptacle for postal ballot papers (referred to as "the receptacle for postal ballot papers") and every such ballot box shall be shown open and empty to the agents present and shall then be locked by the returning officer and sealed with the seal of the returning officer and the seals of such of the agents as desire to affix their seals in such manner as to prevent its being opened without breaking the seal.

(5) Every ballot box referred to in paragraph (4) above shall be marked "postal voters' ballot papers" and with the constituency or electoral area (or areas) for which the election (or elections) is held.

(6) The returning officer shall make provision for the safe custody of every such ballot box.

(7) The ballot box shall be opened at the counting of the votes under rule 45 of the elections rules.

Opening of covering envelopes

92.— (1) When a postal voters' ballot box has been opened, the returning officer shall count and note the number of covering envelopes, and shall then open each covering envelope separately.

(2) Where a covering envelope does not contain both a declaration of identity and a ballot paper envelope or, if there is no ballot paper envelope, a ballot paper (or ballot papers) he shall mark the covering envelope "rejected", attach to it the contents (if any) of the covering envelope and place it in a separate receptacle (referred to as "the receptacle for rejected votes"); and if the covering envelope does not contain the declaration separately, the returning officer shall open the ballot paper envelope to ascertain if the declaration is inside that envelope.

(3) On opening a covering envelope, other than one to which paragraph (2) above applies, the returning officer shall first satisfy himself that the declaration of identity has been duly signed and authenticated and, if he is not so satisfied, he shall mark the declaration "rejected", attach to it the ballot paper envelope or, if there is no such envelope, the ballot paper (or ballot papers), and place it in the receptacle for rejected votes:

Provided that before so doing he shall show the declaration to the agents and, if any objection is made by any agent to his decision, he shall add the words "rejection objected to".

(4) Where the number (or numbers) on the declaration of identity duly signed and authenticated agrees with the number (or numbers) on the ballot paper envelope, he shall place the declaration in a separate receptacle (referred to as "the receptacle for declarations of identity") and the ballot paper envelope in another separate receptacle (referred to as "the receptacle for ballot paper envelopes").

(5) Where there is no ballot paper envelope or the ballot paper envelope has been opened under paragraph (2) above, he shall place—

- (a) in the receptacle for postal ballot papers, any ballot paper the number on which is the same as the number (or one of the numbers) on the declaration of identity, duly signed and authenticated;

- (c) in the receptacle for declarations of identity, any such declaration not disposed of under sub-paragraph (b) above.

(6) Where the number (or numbers) on the declaration of identity, duly signed and authenticated, is not the same as the number (or numbers) on the ballot paper envelope or that envelope has no number on it (or only one number where the declaration of identity has more than one) he shall open the envelope and shall place—

- (a) in the receptacle for postal ballot papers, any ballot paper the number on which is the same as the number (or one of the numbers) on the declaration of identity, duly signed and authenticated;
- (b) in the receptacle for rejected votes, any other ballot paper, to which shall be attached the declaration of identity marked "rejected";
- (c) in the receptacle for rejected votes, any declaration of identity, marked "rejected", in respect of a ballot paper envelope which either does not contain a ballot paper or, where more than one number appears on the declaration, a sufficient number of ballot papers (and indicating, in such a case, the missing ballot paper); and
- (d) in the receptacle for declarations of identity, any such declaration not disposed of under sub-paragraph (b) or (c) above.

(7) Except for the purposes of ascertaining under paragraph (2) above whether a ballot paper envelope contains a declaration of identity or under paragraph (6) above whether the number (or numbers) on the declaration agrees with the number on the ballot paper (or ballot papers), the returning officer shall not open the ballot paper envelopes before they are opened under Regulation 94 below.

Sealing up of rejected votes and declarations of identity

93. On the conclusion of the proceedings under Regulation 92 above the Regulation 29

Form A: RETURN BY OCCUPIER AS TO RESIDENTS

Your right to vote

You can vote in elections only if your name appears in the register of electors. A new register is being prepared now.

About this form

The law requires the householder to give the information requested in this form. So please fill it in, sign it and return it to the electoral registration officer as quickly as possible.

Remember to include the names of those in your household who will be eligible—their right to vote is important too.

The qualifying date for the new register is 10 October 1986. But you need not wait until then to fill in the form. And you should still give the information even if you intend to move home after 10 October.

Inside this form there are details of who is eligible to vote and instructions on how to answer the questions.

If there is anything you don't understand or if you would like more information, contact your electoral registration officer at the address shown on the form. He will be pleased to help.

Checking the register

The draft register is published on 28 November and between then and 16 December you should check at your local council offices to make sure that your name has been included. If for some reason you have been missed off, you should apply immediately to have your name added to the register.

Adding your name to the register in force

The full register of electors for 1987 comes into force on 16 February. If you find that your name is not on the register for your address and you were resident there on 10 October, apply as soon as possible to have your name added.

Absent votes for blind and disabled people

People who are blind, disabled or seriously ill may be entitled to a postal or proxy vote to save them having to go to the polling station in person. The electoral registration officer can give further information.

Does your work take you away from home?

If you think you will be unable to vote in person at elections because your work regularly takes you away from home, you may be entitled to a postal or proxy vote. Details are available from the electoral registration officer.

REGISTER OF ELECTORS 19

You are required by law to complete this form.

1 Please fill in 1-3, 5 & 6 or 1, 4, 5 & 6 if no one in your household is eligible to vote. Please write your full address.
(Please write in BLOCK LETTERS.)

2 Please read the instructions below and then write here the names of all those living in your household on 10 October 1986 who are British, other Commonwealth or Irish citizens and are aged 18 or over on that date.

Please remember to include the following:

- (a) 16 and 17 year olds—they can vote as soon as they are 18. Please give their dates of birth in the special box opposite. The electoral registration officer will ensure that only those who reach 18 during the life of the register will be included in it.
- (b) Those who normally live in your household but are temporarily away—for example, on holiday, as students, in hospital (including voluntary patients in psychiatric hospitals).
- (c) Anyone who is away working, unless his or her absence will total more than six months.

Unless your name is on the register of electors you will not be able to vote at any election. To make sure that you will be on the new register and able to vote you should therefore look at the draft register to see that your name is included on it.

HOW TO FIND YOUR NAME IN THE DRAFT REGISTER

3. If your name is not on the draft register and you think it ought to be, you should submit a claim to the electoral registration officer not later than 16th December on a form which he will give you.

4. Your name ought to be on the register if you are over 18 now, or your 18th birthday is not later than 15th February in the year after next, and either

- or (iii) you had made a patient's declaration or an overseas elector's declaration on or before 10th October last in respect of an address in the constituency.

The letter 'N' by your name indicates that your name is not included in the current register but will be included in the register being prepared.

OBJECTIONS TO OR ALTERATION OF ENTRIES

5. A request for the alteration of any entry, or an objection to the inclusion of any other person's name, should be submitted to the electoral registration officer not later than 16th December on a form which he will give you.

YOUR RIGHT TO VOTE AS PROXY

1. This proxy paper gives you the right to vote as proxy on behalf of the elector whose name is given above.
2. Your appointment as proxy may be for a particular election only, or it may be for an indefinite period. If it is for a particular election, you have the right to vote as proxy only at the election specified in the proxy paper. If it is for an indefinite period, you have in general the right to vote as proxy at any parliamentary or local election until the electoral registration officer informs you to the contrary. But if the person on whose behalf you have the right to vote as proxy qualifies as an overseas elector you may vote on his or her behalf only at parliamentary elections.
3. When the elector applied for you to be appointed as proxy EITHER he or she was asked to state that he or she had consulted you and that you were capable of being and willing to be appointed as proxy OR you signed a statement stating that you were capable of being and willing to be appointed. You are capable of being appointed as proxy if you are at least 18 years old on polling day, a British or other Commonwealth citizen or a citizen of the Republic of Ireland and not for any reason disqualified from voting. If for some reason you are not capable of being, or willing to be, appointed as proxy, please write to the elector asking him to cancel the appointment.
4. You may vote as proxy at the polling station allotted to the elector on whose behalf you are appointed. However, you may not vote as proxy at the same election for more than two electors of whom you are not the husband, wife, parent, grandparent, brother, sister, child or grandchild. Shortly before polling day you will be sent a proxy poll card telling you where the polling station is. You do not need to take either the poll card or this proxy paper to the polling station but you may find it helpful to do so. Remember that the elector may still vote in person. If he or she applies for a ballot paper at the polling station before you do you will not be able to vote as proxy on his or her behalf.
5. If you cannot vote in person at the polling station the electoral registration officer may be able to allow you to vote as proxy by post. If your appointment is for an indefinite period, you may apply to vote by post throughout the period your appointment is in force if you live in a different electoral division (or, where there are no electoral divisions, a different parliamentary constituency) from the elector's qualifying address; or if the addresses are in the same electoral division but in a different parish in England or community in Wales. If you are registered for the same constituency or electoral area as the elector, you may apply if you are entitled to vote by post or proxy on your own behalf. In addition, you may vote by post at a particular election if the electoral registration officer is satisfied that you cannot reasonably be expected to vote in person at the elector's polling station. But the electoral registration officer cannot allow an application to vote by post at a particular election if he receives it after midday on the thirteenth working day before the poll.

PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION

You need not take this card with you when you go to the polling station, but it will save time if you take it and show it to the clerk there.

When you go to the polling station, tell the clerk your name and address, as shown on the front of the card. The presiding officer will give you a ballot paper; see that he stamps the official mark on it before he gives it to you.

Go to one of the compartments. Mark a cross (X) in the box on the right hand side of the ballot paper opposite the name of the candidate you are voting for.

Fold the ballot paper in two. Show the official mark to the presiding officer, but do not let anyone see your vote. Put the ballot paper in the ballot box and leave the polling station.

Vote for one candidate only. Put no other mark on the ballot paper, or your vote may not be counted.

If by mistake you spoil a ballot paper, show it to the presiding officer and ask for another one.

If you have appointed a proxy to vote in person for you, you may nevertheless vote at this election if you do so before your proxy has voted on your behalf.

If you have been granted a postal vote, you will not be entitled to vote in person at this election, so please ignore this poll card.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations replace the Representation of the People Regulations 1983, as amended by the Representation of the People (Amendment) Regulations 1985, (“the 1983 Regulations”). The principal changes made are in consequence of, and to give effect to, the Representation of the People Act 1985 (“the Act of 1985”); in particular, the extension of the franchise made by sections 1 to 4 of that Act, the changes to the entitlement to an absent vote made by sections 5 to 9 and the provisions for the combination of polls at certain elections made by section 15.

Part I of these Regulations repeats much of the substance of Parts I and VI of the 1983 Regulations. Certain provisions which were included in that Part VI appear in the Part of these Regulations to which the subject matter of those provisions relates. The substance of Regulation 68 (appeals) of the 1983 Regulations is included as Regulations 44, 61 and 71 in these Regulations. Regulation 75(2) (time) is included (in modified form) as Regulation 69(6) and Regulation 76(1) (penalties) is included as Regulation 29(3) (with the maximum fine increased from £100 to £400). The definition of “available for inspection” in Regulation 4(1) makes provision equivalent to that in Regulation 73(2) of the 1983 Regulations. The provisions about the calculation of time made by Regulation 10 of these Regulations differ from the provisions in Regulation 75 of the 1983 Regulations, and Regulation 10(3) reflects the changes made by section 19(1), (4) and (5) of the Act of 1985. The fees which were prescribed by paragraphs (2) and (3) of Regulation 70 (return and declaration of election expenses) of the 1983 Regulations have been increased from £1 and 10p to £1.20 and 12p respectively by paragraphs (2) and (3) of Regulation 12 of these Regulations. The maximum fine in Regulation 76(2) (interference with notices etc.) of the 1983 Regulations which was £100 is now £400 in Regulation 13 of these Regulations.

In addition to those changes, Regulation 14, together with Schedule 3 to these Regulations, provides for the first time for the registers to be kept under section 3 of the Act of 1985 in respect of those peers who are entitled to vote at elections of representatives to the Assembly of the European Communities under subsections (2), (3) and (4) of that section. Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Regulation 14 require registration officers to prepare and publish registers of such peers. Certain provisions about registration in the Acts of 1983 and 1985 are applied by paragraph (3) of Regulation 14 and column 1 of Schedule 3, subject to the modifications and exceptions in column 2 of that Schedule and paragraph (4) of that Regulation. Amongst the provisions that are applied with such modifications and exceptions is section 2 of the Act of 1985 which requires a person entitled to vote at parliamentary elections in pursuance of section 1 of that Act to make an overseas elector’s declaration. As applied by Regulation 14 and Schedule 3, section 2 of that Act makes a similar requirement in respect of peers to whom section 3 applies. Paragraph (5) of Regulation 14 applies Parts I, II and III of these Regulations for the purposes of declarations by such peers and registration in pursuance of them and makes certain general adaptations for that purpose. Specific adaptations to particular regulations are made where necessary (for example, by Regulations 27(3) and 28(3)).

Part II of these Regulations replaces the supplementary provisions about service declarations and patients’ declarations made by Part II of the 1983 Regulations as well as making new supplementary provisions about overseas electors' declarations. No provision is included equivalent to Regulation 9 of the 1983 Regulations (which exercised the power in section 15(1)(b) of the Representation of the People Act 1983 ("the 1983 Act")) and the provision about service declarations ceasing to be in force on a change in circumstances has been expanded to include all service declarations (Regulation 16). Additional attestation requirements in respect of a patient's declaration have been included (Regulation 21(3)).

As respects overseas electors' declarations Part II of these Regulations supplements section 2 of the Act of 1985 by prescribing further information to be included in such declarations (Regulation 23), by whom such declarations may be attested (Regulation 24) and the conditions and manner of such attestation (Regulation 25). Regulations 26 and 27 provide for the transmission of overseas electors' declarations and their evidential value and Regulation 28 provides for notification about registration as an overseas elector.

Part III of these Regulations repeats the substance of Part III of the 1983 Regulations with the additions and omissions mentioned below. Additional provisions are included in respect of the registration of overseas electors (principally Regulations 31(3)(b), 34, 46, 49(2)(ii), 50(2) and 54(2)). New provisions are made in respect of alterations to the electors lists (Regulation 37) and for the means by which electors lists published in the form of a draft register may take effect as the register (paragraphs (3) to (6) of Regulation 51). No provision is included equivalent to Regulation 33 of the 1983 Regulations (corrupt and illegal practices list) consequent on the repeal of section 51 of the Act of 1983 by paragraph 11 of Schedule 4 to the Act of 1985. The order of the regulations is also changed and now follows the following sequence: information about electors; preparation, publication and free supply of the electors lists; alterations to those lists; publication, free supply and sale of register (and data connected with register); and alterations to the published register.

Part IV of these Regulations makes fresh provision about absent voting to supplement the provisions of sections 6 to 9 of the Act of 1985. In addition, Regulations 74, 75 and 76 make provision about records, specially marked copies of the register for polling stations and the certificate of employment under rule 32 of the parliamentary elections rules in Schedule 1 to the Act of 1983 similar to the provision made by Regulations 45, 46 and 47 of the 1983 Regulations. Unlike the 1983 Regulations, forms for use in connection with applications to vote by post or by proxy are not prescribed by these Regulations. Instead the Regulations set out general requirements about the information that all such applications must provide (Regulation 63) as well as additional requirements which must be satisfied in respect of applications under particular provisions (Regulations 64 to 68). In particular, an application under section 7(1) of the Act of 1985 is required to be attested (Regulation 66). Regulation 69 makes provision for the closing date for applications, including new provision allowing a late closing date where an application under section 7(1) of the Act of 1985 is made on the grounds of illness (Regulation 69(3)). Regulation 73 is a new provision about periodic inquiries to be made by the registration officer as to the circumstances of persons shown in the lists of those entitled to an absent vote for an indefinite period on the grounds set out in paragraphs (b) and (c) of section 6(2) of the Act of 1985.

Part V of these Regulations is based on Part V of the 1983 Regulations. However, those provisions are expanded to allow the proceedings on the issue and receipt of postal ballot papers to be taken together where the polls at elections are taken together under section 15(1) or (2) of the Act of 1985 or section 36(3) or (3AA) of the Act of 1983. Regulation 81 provides for the notification of the requirement of secrecy, thereby replacing Regulation 52 of the 1983 Regulations with a provision similar to rule 31 of the parliamentary elections rules (as substituted by paragraph 80 of Schedule 4 to the Act of 1985). No provision is made equivalent to Regulation 49 of the 1983 Regulations (form of postal ballot paper) since rule 19 of those rules already requires all ballot papers to be printed in the same form.

Part VI of these Regulations makes provision about the combination of polls at elections under section 15 of the Act of 1985 and section 36(3) and (3AA) of the Act of 1983. Regulation 97 determines which polling stations are to be used at elections the polls at which are to be taken together and which returning officer is to discharge the functions specified in Regulation 98. Those functions include the provision of polling stations and the appointment of staff for them (Regulation 98(2)(c) and (d)) and functions in connection with sorting the ballot papers at the count between the combined elections (Regulation 98(2)(i)). Regulation 99 extends the powers of various authorities under the Act of 1983 to set a scale of expenses for returning officers to allow them to set a scale in respect of returning officers who discharge the functions specified in Regulation 98 at combined elections. Regulation 100 makes amendments to the parliamentary elections rules which have effect where the poll at a parliamentary election is taken together with the poll at some other election. These include provisions requiring the ballot papers at the parliamentary election to be of a different colour (Regulation 100(2)); requiring the same ballot box to be used for combined elections (Regulation 100(5)); and concerning the sorting of the ballot papers at the count between combined elections.

By virtue of the Representation of the People Act 1985 (Commencement No. 3) Order 1986 (S.I. 1986/1080), sections 1 to 4 of the Act of 1985 come into force on 11th July 1986, and sections 6 to 9 and 15 of, and Schedule 2 to, the Act come into force on 16th February 1987.
