Notice of appeal

3.—(1) An application to the judge of the Crown Court for leave to appeal under section 9(11) of the Act of 1987 shall be made orally within two days of the making of the order or ruling to which it relates.

(2) Unless the application is made on the occasion of the order or ruling to which it relates, the appellant shall serve notice in writing thereof, specifying the grounds of the application, on the appropriate officer of the Crown Court and on all parties to the hearing directly affected by the order or ruling in question.

(3) The appellant shall within seven days from the said order or ruling serve notice of appeal therefrom or, as the case may be, of an application to the Court of Appeal for leave to appeal on—

(6) If notice in writing of an application for leave to appeal was, under paragraph (2) above, served on the Crown Court, a copy thereof shall accompany the notice of appeal or, as the case may be, of an application for leave to appeal required under paragraph (3) above to be served on the registrar.

(7) Notice of appeal or of an application for leave to appeal may be given either in respect of the whole or any part of the order to which it relates and shall—

- (a) specify any question of law in respect of which the appeal is brought and, where appropriate, such facts of the case as are necessary for its proper consideration;
- (b) summarise the arguments intended to be put to the Court of Appeal; and
- (c) specify any authorities intended to be cited.

(8) Where the judge of the Crown Court has given leave to appeal the notice of appeal shall state that fact and specify the grounds on which leave is given.

(9) Notice of appeal or of an application for leave to appeal shall be accompanied by any documents or other things (or copies thereof) necessary for the proper determination of the appeal or application.

Respondent's notice

4.—(1) Upon receiving notice of appeal or of an application for leave to appeal, the respondent if he desires to oppose the appeal, shall, within seven days of receipt of the notice, serve a notice in Form IA(2) on the registrar,—

(a) stating the date on which the appellant's notice was received by the respondent;

- (b) summarising his response to the arguments of the appellant; and
- (c) specifying the authorities which he intends to cite,

and shall at the same time serve a copy thereof on the appellant and any other party to the proceedings directly affected by the order or ruling and on the appropriate officer of the Crown Court.

(2) The time for giving notice under this rule may be extended, either before or after it expires, by the Court of Appeal.

Persons in custody

Powers exercisable by single judge

8.—(1) The following powers may be exercised by a judge of the court in the same manner as they may be exercised by the court and subject to the same provisions, namely—

- (d) to give leave, in pursuance of rule 5, for a person in custody to be present at any proceedings.

(2) A judge of the court shall, for the purpose of exercising any of the powers specified above, sit in such place as he appoints, and may sit otherwise than in open court.

Determination by full court

9.—(1) Where a judge of the court has refused an application on the part of an applicant to exercise in his favour any of the powers referred to in rule 8, the applicant may have the application determined by the court by serving a notice in Form IA(5) on the registrar within 7 days, or such longer period as a judge of the court may fix, from the date on which notice of the refusal was served on him by the registrar.

(2) The notice shall be signed by, or on behalf of, the applicant.

(3) If the notice is not signed by the applicant and the applicant is in custody, the registrar shall, as soon as practicable after receiving the notice, send a copy of it to the applicant.

(4) If such a notice is not served on the registrar within the said 7 days or such longer period as a judge of the court may fix, the application shall be treated as having been refused by the court.

Notice of determination of court

10.—(1) The registrar shall, as soon as practicable, serve notice of any determination by the Court of Appeal or by any judge of the court under rule 8 on—

- (a) the applicant; and

(2) Where any document is required under any of these Rules to be served on any party to the proceedings, service may be effected by serving it on his solicitor if he has one.

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4) below the registrar shall give as long notice in advance as reasonably possible of the date of hearing of any appeal or application—

- (a) to the appellant; and
- (b) to the respondent and any other party directly affected by the order or ruling to which the appeal or application under section 9(11) of the Act of 1987 relates.
- (3) Paragraph (2) above shall not apply to proceedings before a judge of the court under rule 8.

(4) Where a party to whom notice is required to be given by this rule is at the material time in custody, notice shall instead be given to the person having custody of him.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules make provision for regulating the practice and procedure of the criminal division of the Court of Appeal for the purposes of appeals against orders or rulings made at preparatory hearings in cases of fraud held under section 9 of the Criminal Justice Act 1987 (c. 38).

Rules 3 and 4 provide for giving notice of appeal or of an application for leave to appeal and for the application for leave to appeal and for the respondent's notice in response thereto. Rule 5 makes provision enabling persons in custody to be present on appeals or applications for leave to appeal. Rule 6 provides for the supply of documentary and other exhibits by the registrar to the parties to an appeal. Rule 7 applies with modifications rule 10 of the Criminal Appeal Rules 1968 (S.I.1968/1262) (abandonment of proceedings). Rule 8 gives a single judge power to determine certain applications, and rule 9 permits the applicant in case of refusal to apply to the Court of Appeal. Rules 10, 11, 12 and 13 make supplementary provision.

These Rules, by virtue of rule 1, come into force on 31st October 1988.
