1989 No. 1067

The Copyright (Application of Provisions relating to Educational Establishments to Teachers) (No. 2) Order 1989

2. Sections 35 and 36 of the Act (which provide for educational use of recordings of broadcasts and cable programmes and copying of passages from published works in which copyright subsists) and sections 137 to 141 of the Act (which provide for reprographic copying of works under licence) shall apply in relation to teachers who are employed by a local education authority to give instruction elsewhere to pupils who are unable to attend an educational establishment.
