The Food Imitations (Safety) Regulations 1989

4. No person shall supply, offer to supply, agree to supply, expose for supply or possess for supply any manufactured goods which are ordinarily intended for private use and are not food but which—
- (a) have a form, odour, colour, appearance, packaging, labelling, volume or size which is likely to cause persons, in particular, children to confuse them with food and in consequence to place them in their mouths or suck them or swallow them; and
 - (b) where such action as is mentioned in (a) above is taken in relation to them, may cause death or personal injury.
