Registrar’s notice to offender

5.—(1) The registrar shall, as soon as practicable after receiving the application, cause to be served on the offender a copy of it together with a notice which—

- (b) informs him of the effect of paragraphs 6 (entitlement of offender to be present at hearing of reference, although he may be in custody), 7 (offender in custody requires leave of Court to be present at hearing of application), 8 (power of Court to pass sentence on offender who is not present) and 11 (entitlement of offender to reasonable costs out of central funds) of Schedule 3 to the Act;

- (d) draws to his attention the effect of rule 9 below (supply of documentary and other exhibits); and
- (e) advises him to consult a solicitor as to his position as soon as possible.

(2) The Court shall not hear argument by or on behalf of the Attorney General until the period specified by the registrar has expired unless the offender agrees or has indicated that he does not wish to present any argument to the Court.

- (4) Where the Court give leave for a case to be referred to them and are satisfied that the document comprising the application also contains the material required by paragraph (1) above to be contained in a reference, the Court may order that the document be treated for the purpose of these Rules as the reference; and in that case paragraph (3) above shall not apply.

Withdrawal or amendment of application or reference

7. The Attorney General may withdraw or amend an application or reference at any time before the Court have begun the hearing of the application or reference as the case may be, or, after that, and until the Court have given their decision, may withdraw or amend the application or reference by leave of the court, and notice of such withdrawal or amendment shall be served on the registrar and on the offender on behalf of the Attorney General.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules make procedural provision for the Attorney General to exercise his power of referring to the Court of Appeal cases where it appears to him that the sentencing of an offender in the Crown Court for an offence triable on indictment only has been unduly lenient. Under Part IV of the Criminal Justice Act 1988 the Court of Appeal has power to review, and alter, the sentencing on any such reference.

Rule 3 of these Rules prescribes the content of an application by the Attorney General for leave to make a reference. Rules 4 and 5 relate to the giving of notice of the application. Under rule 5, the registrar of criminal appeals, on receipt of the Attorney General's application, shall send a copy of it to the offender and inform him of his position in respect of it.

Rule 6 prescribes the content of a reference to the Court of Appeal. Rule 7 concerns the withdrawal or amendment of applications and references, rule 8 the power of the registrar to require information from the court of trial, rule 9 the supply by the registrar, on payment of a fee, of documents required for the case, and rule 10 the service of documents under the Rules.
