

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order preserves the effect of the provisions of the Police Federation Regulations 1969 listed in article 2 by disapplying section 1(1) of the Employment Act 1989 (overriding of statutory requirements which conflict with certain provisions of the Sex Discrimination Act 1975). The provisions listed relate to the constitutional and electoral arrangements for branch boards, certain liaison committees, central conferences, the conferences arrangements committee, central committees and women's regional conferences of the Police Federation for England and Wales. The Order also renders lawful acts of discrimination required under those provisions (article 3).
