- (5) Where there are any special circumstances which should be drawn to the attention of the appropriate authority, the solicitor shall specify them.
- (6) The solicitor shall supply such further particulars, information and documents as the appropriate authority may require.

Determination of solicitors' fees

6.—(1) Subject to paragraph (5), the appropriate authority may allow work done by fee-earners in the following classes—

- (a) preparation, including taking instructions, interviewing witnesses, ascertaining the prosecution case, advising on plea and mode of trial, preparing and perusing documents, dealing with letters and telephone calls which are not routine, preparing for advocacy, instructing counsel and expert witnesses, conferences, consultations, views and work done in connection with advice on appeal or case stated;

- (c) attendance at court where counsel is assigned, including conferences with counsel at court;
- (d) travelling and waiting;

- (a) such work as appears to it to have been reasonably done under the legal aid order (including any representation or advice which is deemed to be work done under that order) by a fee-earner, classifying such work according to the classes specified in paragraph (1) as it considers appropriate; and
- (b) such time in respect of each class of work allowed by it (other than dealing with routine letters written and routine telephone calls) as it considers reasonable and, in any proceedings which are specified in paragraph 1(2) of Schedule 1 Part II, the appropriate authority shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 3 of that Part of that Schedule.

(3) Subject to paragraphs (2), (4) and (5), the appropriate authority shall allow fees for work allowed by it under this regulation in accordance with Schedule 1 Part I; provided that, where any work allowed was done after 30th June 1990, it may allow such fees as appear to it to be reasonable for such work having regard to the rates specified in that Part of Schedule 1.

(4) In the case of criminal proceedings in the Crown Court and the Court of Appeal, the fees allowed in accordance with Part I of Schedule 1 shall be those appropriate to such of the following grades of fee-earner as the appropriate authority considers reasonable—

- (a) senior solicitor,
- (b) solicitor, legal executive or fee-earner of equivalent experience,
- (c) articulated clerk or fee-earner of equivalent experience.

(5) In the case of care proceedings in the Crown Court, the appropriate authority shall allow such fees in respect of such work as it considers reasonable in such amounts as appear to it to be reasonable remuneration for such work.

(6) This regulation applies to work in respect of which standard fees are payable under Part II of Schedule 1 only to the extent that that Part specifically so provides.

Determination of solicitors' disbursements

7.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this regulation, the appropriate authority shall allow such disbursements claimed under regulation 5 as appear to it to have been reasonably incurred; provided that:

- (a) if they are abnormally large by reason of the distance of the court or the assisted person's residence or both from the solicitor's place of business, reimbursement of the expenses may be limited to what would otherwise, having regard to all the circumstances, be a reasonable amount; and
- (b) in the case of an appeal to the Court of Appeal, the cost of a transcript, or any part thereof, of the proceedings in the court from which the appeal lies obtained otherwise than through the registrar shall not be allowed except where the appropriate authority considers that it is reasonable in all the circumstances for such disbursement to be allowed.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), a solicitor may claim a disbursement in respect of fees of counsel instructed by him in proceedings in a magistrates' court where counsel has not been assigned under the legal aid order.

(3) The appropriate authority shall determine the amount of any disbursement payable under paragraph (2) by estimating the sum which it would have allowed the solicitor under these Regulations by way of costs had he undertaken the case without counsel and shall allow counsel and the solicitor such reasonable costs as do not together exceed that sum.

(4) No question as to the propriety of any step or act in relation to which prior authority has been obtained under regulation 54 of the General Regulations shall be raised on any determination of costs, unless the solicitor knew or ought reasonably to have known that the purpose for which the authority was given had failed or become irrelevant or unnecessary before the costs were incurred.

(5) Where costs are reasonably incurred in accordance with and subject to the limit imposed by a prior authority given under regulation 54 of the General Regulations, no question shall be raised on any determination of costs as to the amount of the payment to be allowed for the step or act in relation to which the authority was given.

(6) Where costs are incurred in taking any step or doing any act for which authority may be given under regulation 54 of the General Regulations, without authority to do so having been given or in excess of any fee authorised under regulation 54 of the General Regulations, payment in respect of those costs may nevertheless be allowed on a determination of costs.

Claims for fees by counsel

8.—(1) Subject to regulation 17, no claim by counsel for fees for work done under a legal aid order shall be entertained unless counsel submits it within three months of the conclusion of the proceedings to which the legal aid order relates.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), a claim for fees shall be submitted to the appropriate authority in such form and manner as it may direct.

(3) A claim shall—

- (a) summarise the items of work in respect of which fees are claimed according to the classes specified in regulation 9(4);
- (b) state the dates on which the items of work were done, the time taken where appropriate, the sums claimed and whether the work was done for more than one assisted person;
- (c) give particulars of any work done in relation to more than one indictment or a retrial.

(4) Where counsel claims that—

- (a) it would be inappropriate to allow a standard fee under regulation 9(2); or
- (b) regulation 9(5)(b) should be applied in relation to an item of work, he shall give full particulars in support of his claim.

(5) Where there are any special circumstances which should be drawn to the attention of the appropriate authority, counsel shall specify them.

(6) Counsel shall supply such further particulars, information and documents as the appropriate authority may require.

Determination of counsel's fees

9.—(1) The appropriate authority shall consider the claim, any further particulars, information or documents submitted by counsel under regulation 8 and any other relevant information and shall allow such work as appears to it to have been reasonably done.

(2) Where the work allowed has been done by junior counsel in the Crown Court, the appropriate authority shall, subject to paragraph (3), allow such of the standard fees specified in Part I of Schedule 2 as may be applicable to that work, unless it appears to the appropriate authority that the standard fee would be inappropriate taking into account all the relevant circumstances of the case, in which case it shall allow fees in accordance with paragraphs (4) and (5).

(3) The appropriate authority may not allow a standard fee in respect of—

- (a) committals for trial in which the indictment includes counts in respect of an offence which is classified as a class 1 or 2 offence in accordance with directions given by the Lord Chief Justice under section 75 of the Supreme Court Act 1981(a);
- (b) proceedings in any other case—
 - (i) which lasted more than three days or which at the time of listing were reasonably expected to last more than three days;
 - (ii) in which the indictment is disposed of by a plea of guilty but which if contested would reasonably have been expected to last more than three days, unless counsel requests that a standard fee be allowed.

(4) The appropriate authority may, except in relation to work for which a standard fee is allowed under paragraph (2), allow any of the following classes of fee to counsel in respect of work allowed by it under this regulation—

- (a) a basic fee for preparation including preparation for a pre-trial review and, where appropriate, the first day's hearing including, where they took place on that day, short conferences, consultations, applications and appearances (including bail applications), views and any other preparation;
- (b) a refresher fee for any day or part of a day during which a hearing continued, including, where they took place on that day, short conferences, consultations, applications and appearances (including bail applications), views and any other preparation;

(a) 1981 c.54.

(c) subsidiary fees for—

- (i) attendance at conferences, consultations and views not covered by sub-paragraph (a) or (b);
- (ii) written advice on evidence, plea, appeal, case stated or other written work;
- (iii) attendance at pre-trial reviews, applications and appearances (including bail applications and adjournments for sentence) not covered by sub-paragraph (a) or (b).

(5) In the case of proceedings in the Crown Court or a magistrates' court, the appropriate authority shall, except in relation to work for which a standard fee is allowed under paragraph (2), allow such fees in respect of such work as it considers reasonable in such amounts as it may determine in accordance with Part II of Schedule 2; provided that:

- (a) where any work allowed was done after 30th June 1990, the appropriate authority may allow such fees in such amounts as appear to it to be reasonable remuneration for such work having regard to the amounts specified in Part II of Schedule 2; or
- (b) where it appears to the appropriate authority, taking into account all the relevant circumstances of the case, that owing to the exceptional circumstances of the case the amount payable by way of fees in accordance with Part II of Schedule 2 would not provide reasonable remuneration for some or all of the work it has allowed, it may allow such amount as appears to it to be reasonable remuneration for the relevant work.

(6) In the case of proceedings in the Court of Appeal, the appropriate authority shall allow such fees in respect of such work as it considers reasonable in such amounts as appear to it to be reasonable remuneration for such work.

(7) Where prior authority has been obtained to instruct a Queen's Counsel alone under regulation 54 of the General Regulations, no question as to the propriety of that act shall be raised on any determination of counsel's fees, unless the solicitor knew or ought reasonably to have known that the purpose for which the authority was given had failed or become irrelevant or unnecessary before the fees were incurred.

Payment of costs

10.—(1) Having determined the costs payable to a solicitor or counsel in accordance with these Regulations, the appropriate authority shall notify the solicitor or counsel of the costs payable and authorise payment accordingly.

(2) Where the costs payable under paragraph (1) are varied as a result of any review, redetermination or appeal made or brought pursuant to these Regulations, then—

- (a) where the costs are increased, the appropriate authority shall authorise payment of the increase;
- (b) where the costs are decreased, the solicitor or counsel shall repay the amount of such decrease; and
- (c) where the payment of any costs of the solicitor or counsel is ordered under regulation 15(14) or 16(8) or under paragraph 8(4) of Schedule 1 Part II, the appropriate authority shall authorise such payment.

(3) Any payment in respect of counsel which is determined under regulation 7(3) shall be paid to counsel direct.

12.—(1) If, in a case in which the Board is the appropriate authority, a solicitor or counsel is dissatisfied with a determination made under these Regulations, the solicitor or counsel may within 21 days of receipt of notification of the costs payable under regulation 10(1) apply to the appropriate area committee to review that determination.

(2) On an application under paragraph (1), the appropriate area committee shall review the determination whether by confirming, increasing or decreasing the amount of it.

Appeals to committee appointed by the Board

13.—(1) A solicitor or counsel who is dissatisfied with the decision of an area committee on a review under regulation 12 may within 21 days of receipt of notification of the decision apply to that committee to certify a point of principle of general importance.

(3) On an appeal under this regulation the committee appointed by the Board may reverse, affirm or amend the decision of the area committee under regulation 12.

Time limits

17.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the period of time within which any act is required or authorised to be done under these Regulations by a solicitor or counsel may, for good reason, be extended by the appropriate authority; provided that where any such act is required or authorised to be done under regulation 15 or 16, the period of time thereby allowed may be extended, for good reason, only by a taxing master or the High Court as the case may be.

(2) Where a solicitor or counsel without good reason has failed (or, if an extension were not granted, would fail) to comply with a time limit, the appropriate authority, the Chief Taxing Master or the High Court, as the case may be, may, in exceptional circumstances, extend the time limit and shall consider whether it is reasonable in the circumstances to reduce the costs; provided that costs shall not be reduced unless the solicitor or counsel has been allowed a reasonable opportunity to show cause orally or in writing why the costs should not be reduced.

PART II

STANDARD FEES

Application

1.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (3) and (4), this Part of this Schedule applies to the fees for work done by a fee-earner regardless of his grade in relation to the proceedings in the Crown Court specified in sub-paragraph (2).

(2) The following proceedings are specified for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1)—

- (a) committals for trial in which the indictment consisted of counts in respect of an offence which is classified as a class 3 or 4 offence in accordance with directions given by the Lord Chief Justice under section 75 of the Supreme Court Act 1981 and
 - (i) where the trial (including any case prepared for trial in which no jury was sworn) lasted 2 days or less and at the time of listing was reasonably expected to last 2 days or less; or
 - (ii) where the case was listed and disposed of as a plea of guilty;
- (b) appeals against conviction;
- (c) appeals against sentence, and
- (d) committals for sentence (including proceedings which arose out of a breach of an order of the Crown Court, proceedings in which sentence was deferred and other similar matters).

(3) Where in any proceedings specified in sub-paragraph (2), the trial judge—

- (a) is dissatisfied with the solicitor's conduct of the case; or
- (b) considers that, for exceptional reasons, the fees should be determined under regulation 6, he may direct that the fees should be determined under regulation 6 and in that event this Part of this Schedule shall not apply.

(4) If a solicitor so elects, he may claim standard fees under this Part of this Schedule in respect of work done by him notwithstanding that the proceedings in relation to which the work was done are not specified in sub-paragraph (2), and the provisions of this Part of this Schedule shall apply to such a claim with the necessary modifications, save that, where a solicitor elects to claim the principal standard fee for preparation in respect of a trial which lasted more than 2 days, he shall be paid that fee (together with the appropriate standard fees for the other classes of work specified in paragraph 4(2)) and paragraph 2 shall not apply.

(5) For the purposes of this Part of this Schedule, the standard fees which are payable and the classes of work for which such fees may be paid are specified in paragraph 4 and the "lower fee limit" and the "upper fee limit" have the meanings given by paragraph 4(3).

Allowance of standard fees

2.—(1) The appropriate authority shall allow the standard fee for preparation which has been claimed by a solicitor (together with the appropriate standard fees for the other classes of work specified in paragraph 4(2)) unless, where the principal standard fee for preparation has been claimed, such a fee is considered to be excessive in which case the lower standard fee shall be allowed.

(2) A solicitor who has been allowed the lower standard fee instead of the principal fee claimed may —

- (a) accept that lower fee;
- (b) request the appropriate authority in writing to review its decision, or
- (c) provide the appropriate authority with a detailed claim in the form directed by the appropriate authority requesting in writing that the fees for preparation be determined under regulation 6.

(3) Where the appropriate authority is requested to review its decision under sub-paragraph (2)(b), the authority shall either—

- (a) allow the principal fee; or
- (b) request the solicitor to provide a detailed claim in the form directed by the appropriate authority.

(4) Where a solicitor fails to make a request under sub-paragraph (2)(b) or to supply a detailed claim for the purposes of sub-paragraph (2)(c) or (3)(b) within 6 weeks of the decision to allow the lower fee or the request to supply a detailed claim, whichever is the later, the decision to allow the lower standard fee shall be deemed to be confirmed.

3.—(1) Where a solicitor—

- (a) submits a claim for determination under regulation 6 in a case to which paragraph 1(2) applies; or
- (b) disputes the allowance of the lower standard fee and provides a detailed claim under paragraph 2(2)(c) or (3)(b), the appropriate authority shall first determine the fees for preparation work within the meaning of paragraph 4(2)(a) of this Part of this Schedule.

(2) If the fees so determined are—

- (a) less than the lower fee limit, the appropriate authority shall allow and pay the lower standard fee together with the standard fees for all other classes of work specified in paragraph 4(2);
- (b) not less than the lower fee limit and not more than the upper fee limit, the appropriate authority shall allow and pay the principal standard fee together with the standard fees for all other classes of work specified in paragraph 4(2);
- (c) more than the upper fee limit, no standard fees shall be payable and all fees shall be determined in accordance with regulation 6.

Standard fees

4.—(1) The classes of work for which standard fees shall be payable are those specified in sub-paragraph (2) and the fees for classes of work which are not so specified shall be determined in accordance with regulation 6.

(2) The classes of work specified for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) are—

- (a) preparation within the meaning of regulation 6(1)(a) but including routine letters written and routine telephone calls, within the meaning of regulation 6(1)(e);
- (b) advocacy in respect of applications for bail;
- (c) attendance at court (including waiting) where counsel is assigned;
- (d) travelling except—
 - (i) to undertake work for which standard fees are not payable, or
 - (ii) where sub-paragraph (2)(b) applies,
 and, for the purpose of this paragraph, “travelling” shall be deemed to include waiting in connection with preparation work, within the meaning of sub-paragraph (2)(a) above.

(3) The standard fees payable under this Part of this Schedule are the fees specified in the Table below and in this Part of this Schedule the “lower fee limit” and the “upper fee limit” mean the lower and upper fee limits specified in the Table.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations consolidate the Legal Aid in Criminal Proceedings (Costs) Regulations 1988, as amended, (which are revoked subject to the provisions of regulation 1(3)) and provide for the determination of the costs which may be paid to the legal representatives of a person given legal aid under Part I and VI of the Legal Aid Act 1988 (legal aid in criminal proceedings and care proceedings).

Regulations 5 and 6 provide for the determination of solicitors' fees, and hourly rates (including separate rates for work in care proceedings) are prescribed together with (in Schedule 1 Part II) a system of standard fees. Regulations 8 and 9 provide for the determination of counsel's fees and scales of payment are prescribed together with a system of standard fees for certain items of work done by junior counsel in the Crown Court. Regulations 12 to 16 and paragraphs 6 to 8 of Schedule 1 Part II provide for the redetermination of fees and for appeals.

These Regulations increase the rates of remuneration previously payable under the 1988 Regulations with an overall increase of 6 per cent.
