PART II

EXCLUSIONS FROM PART III OF THE ACT

Conveyancing Services

3.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), advice and assistance consisting of conveyancing services are excluded from Part III of the Act.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not exclude from Part III of the Act advice or assistance relating to a rental purchase agreement or a conditional sale agreement for the sale of land.

(3) Paragraph (1) does not exclude from Part III of the Act advice or assistance consisting of such conveyancing services as are necessary in order to give effect to an order of the court or, in proceedings under the Matrimonial Causes Act 1973(8) or the Matrimonial and Family Proceedings Act 1984(9), the terms of an agreement.

Wills

4.—(1) Except as provided by paragraph (2), advice and assistance in the making of wills are excluded from Part III of the Act.

(2) Advice and assistance in the making of a will are not excluded by paragraph (1) from Part III of the Act where they are given to a client who is—

- (a) aged 70 or over; or
- (b) blind (or partially sighted), deaf (or hard of hearing), or dumb, or who suffers from mental disorder of any description, or who is substantially and permanently handicapped by illness, injury or congenital deformity; or
- (c) a parent or guardian within the meaning of section 87 of the Child Care Act 1980(10) of a person to whom any description in (b) applies, where the client wishes to provide in the will for that person; or
- (d) the mother or father of a minor who is living with the client, where the client is not living with the minor’s other parent, and the client wishes to appoint a guardian for that minor under section 4 of the Guardianship of Minors Act 1971(11).

(3) 1974 c. 39.
(4) 1985 c. 61.
(5) 1983 c. 20.

(7) 1837 c. 26.
(8) 1973 c. 18.
(9) 1984 c. 42.
(10) 1980 c. 5
(11) 1971 c. 3.

Transition

5. Where advice or assistance has been given before these Regulations come into force, nothing in this Part shall affect further advice or assistance given in relation to the same matter.

PART III

ABWOR

Application of Part III of the Act to ABWOR

6. Part III of the Act does not apply to ABWOR except as provided in this Part.

Proceedings in Magistrates' Courts

7.—(1) Part III of the Act applies to ABWOR given—

- (a) to a client for the purposes of the proceedings in magistrates' courts specified in the Schedule;
- (b) at a hearing in any proceedings in a magistrates' court to a party who is not receiving and has not been refused representation in connection with those proceedings, where the court—
 - (i) is satisfied that the hearing should proceed on the same day;
 - (ii) is satisfied that that party would not otherwise be represented; and
 - (iii) requests a solicitor who is within the precincts of the court for purposes other than the provision of ABWOR in accordance with this sub-paragraph, or approves a proposal from such a solicitor, that he provide that party with ABWOR; or
- (c) to a person in connection with an application for a warrant of further detention, or for an extension of such a warrant, made in respect of that person to a magistrates' court under section 43 or 44 of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984(12).

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), Part III of the Act also applies, in criminal proceedings in magistrates' courts where the client has not previously received and is not otherwise receiving representation or ABWOR in connection with the same proceedings, to ABWOR given to a client—

- (a) in making an application for bail;
- (b) at an appearance in court where the client is in custody and wishes the case to be concluded at that appearance, unless the solicitor who is advising him considers that the case should be adjourned in the interests of justice or of the client;
- (c) who is before the court as a result of a failure to obey an order of the court, where such failure may lead to his being at risk of imprisonment;
- (d) who is not in custody and who in the opinion of the solicitor requires ABWOR.

(3) Paragraph (2) does not apply to committal proceedings, to proceedings in which the client pleads not guilty, nor, unless the solicitor considers the circumstances to be exceptional, to proceedings in connection with a non-imprisonable offence.

(4) Part III also applies to ABWOR given to a defendant in proceedings in a magistrates' court where the defendant is before the court as a result of a failure to pay a fine or other sum which he was ordered on conviction to pay, and such failure may lead to his being at risk of imprisonment.

Proceedings in county courts

8. Part III of the Act applies to ABWOR given by a solicitor at a hearing in any proceedings in a county court to a party who is not receiving and has not been refused representation in connection with those proceedings, where the court—
i is satisfied that the hearing should proceed on the same day;
ii is satisfied that that party would not otherwise be represented; and
iii requests a solicitor who is within the precincts of the court for purposes other than the provision of ABWOR in accordance with this regulation, or approves a proposal from such a solicitor, that he provide that party with ABWOR.

Other Proceedings

9. Part III of the Act applies to ABWOR given—
- (a) to a person in proceedings before a Mental Health Review Tribunal under the Mental Health Act 1983 whose case or whose application to the Tribunal is or is to be the subject of the proceedings;
 - (b) to a prisoner in proceedings before a board of visitors who has been permitted by the board of visitors to be legally represented in those proceedings.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations replace, with amendments, the provisions in the Legal Advice and Assistance Regulations (No. 2) 1980 (S.I.1980/1898) which prescribe the scope of advice and assistance (including assistance by way of representation). The other provisions of those Regulations are replaced, with amendments, by the Legal Advice and Assistance Regulations 1989 (S.I. 1989/340).

The main changes are to disapply (with certain exceptions) the provisions of Part III of the Act from advice and assistance consisting of conveyancing services (regulation 3) or in the making of wills (regulation 4).

In accordance with section 8(2) of the Legal Aid Act 1988, the Regulations apply Part III of the Act to assistance by way of representation (as to proceedings in magistrates' courts, regulation 7; as to proceedings in county courts, regulation 8; as to proceedings before Mental Health Review Tribunals and proceedings before boards of prison visitors, regulation 9).
