The Children (Prescribed Orders — Northern Ireland, Guernsey and Isle of Man) Regulations 1991

Transfer of recovery orders to England and Wales from the Isle of Man

7.—(1) For all purposes of the Act in England and Wales a recovery order under section 98B of the Act of Tynwald (being an order made by a court in the Isle of Man which appears to the Secretary of State to correspond in its effect to an order which may be made under the Act) shall in the circumstances prescribed in paragraph (2) have effect as if it were a recovery order made under section 50 of the Act.

(2) The circumstances referred to in paragraph (1) are that section 98A of the Act of Tynwald applies to the child in question otherwise than by virtue of an order committing him to the care of the Department on a finding of guilt.
