The Public Libraries (Inquiries Procedure) Rules 1992

Inquiry timetable

7.—(1) The appointed person may arrange a timetable for the proceedings at, or at part of, the inquiry at any pre-inquiry meeting held pursuant to rule 6 or, where no such meeting is held, at any other time. The appointed person shall notify the timetable to the persons entitled to appear at the inquiry and may at any time vary the timetable.

(2) The appointed person may specify in a timetable arranged pursuant to this rule a date by which any proof of evidence and summary required by rule 10(1) to be sent to him shall be so sent.
