

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

THE SCHEDULE

1. The activities of a person as a commercial agent are to be considered secondary where it may reasonably be taken that the primary purpose of the arrangement with his principal is other than as set out in paragraph 2 below.