

SCHEDULE 2

PROVISIONS AS TO INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNALS

3. An industrial tribunal shall not consider a complaint under paragraph 2 unless it is presented within three months of the date when the failure occurred or within such further period as the tribunal considers reasonable in a case where it is satisfied that it was not reasonably practicable for the complaint to be presented within the period of three months.