1998 No. 364

The Local Government Pension Scheme (Transitional Provisions) (Scotland) Regulations 1998

Pension funds and authorities

Superannuation funds and appropriate fund authorities

19.—(1) The funds which are appropriate superannuation funds for the old provisions immediately before the commencement date shall continue to be appropriate superannuation funds for those provisions and shall be the appropriate funds for the 1998 Regulations.

(2) Without prejudice to paragraph (1), any liabilities under the old provisions, as they continue to apply by virtue of these Regulations, shall continue to be payable by the appropriate administering authority from the fund which is the appropriate superannuation fund as respects those liabilities immediately before that date.

(3) Where immediately before that date any body is or may become liable to make payments to any such authority or to any superannuation fund in respect of any liability arising under the old provisions in respect of any person, liabilities in respect of whom continue to arise on or after that date under those provisions, that body shall continue to be the body which is or may become so liable.
