EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Sections 32 and 43 of the Local Government Finance Act 1992 (“the 1992 Act”) set out respectively how a billing authority and a major precepting authority other than the Greater London Authority are to calculate their budget requirements for a financial year, and sections 33 and 44 of that Act set out respectively how a billing authority and such a major precepting authority are to calculate the basic amount of their council tax. For the Greater London Authority, the budget requirement is calculated under section 85 of the Greater London Authority Act 1999 (“the 1999 Act”) and the additional amount of council tax in respect of the Metropolitan Police Authority is calculated under section 89 of that Act.

These Regulations, which apply for the financial year beginning on 1st April 2000, modify these provisions as they apply to authorities in England in order to provide for the limitation of council tax benefit subsidy. The amount required to be transferred by a billing authority from its general fund to its collection fund (in accordance with a direction made under section 98(5) of the Local Government Finance Act 1988)–

- (a) is deducted from expenditure in the calculation of the budget requirement under section 32 (regulation 2), but
- (b) increases the basic amount of council tax calculated under section 33 (regulation 3).

Similarly, an estimate of the payment that may be required from a precepting authority to a billing authority–

- (c) is excluded from the calculation of the budget requirement under section 43 of the 1992 Act and section 85 of the 1999 Act (regulations 4 and 6), but
- (d) increases the basic amount of council tax under section 44 of the 1992 Act and the additional amount of council tax for the Metropolitan Police Authority under section 89 of the 1999 Act (regulations 5 and 7).

In addition, regulation 2(b) modifies for authorities in England the definitions in section 32 of the 1992 Act of “police grant” and “relevant special grant”. The amended definitions apply to that section, and also to sections 33, 43 and 44 of the 1992 Act. The same definition of relevant special grant applies to the corresponding sections of the 1999 Act (under section 99 of that Act).
