 - (b) the person will not voluntarily attend as a witness or will not voluntarily produce the document or thing.
- (2) In such a case the court shall, subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, issue a summons (a witness summons) directed to the person concerned and requiring him to—
- (a) attend before the court at the time and place stated in the summons, and
 - (b) give evidence or produce the document or thing.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(3) A witness summons issued under this paragraph shall be in the form specified in the Appendix to this Schedule.

(4) A witness summons may only be issued under this paragraph on an application made in accordance with paragraph 3; and the court may refuse to issue the summons if any requirement relating to the application is not fulfilled.

(5) Until the hearing of the appeal begins, the jurisdiction of the court in relation to its functions under this Schedule shall be exercised by a judge advocate sitting alone.

(6) An application for a witness summons may be made by the appellant or the respondent.

2. A witness summons which is issued under paragraph 1 and which requires a person to produce a document or thing as mentioned in paragraph 1(2) may also require him to produce the document or thing—

(a) at a place stated in the summons, and

(b) at a time which is so stated and precedes that stated under paragraph 1(2), for inspection by the person applying for the summons.

3.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), an application for a witness summons shall be made in writing to the court administration officer and shall—

(a) contain a brief description of the stipulated evidence, document or thing;

(b) set out the reasons why the applicant considers that the stipulated evidence, document or thing is likely to be material;

(c) specify the grounds for believing that the directed person is likely to be able to give the stipulated evidence or to produce the stipulated document or thing;

(2) In the case of an application for a witness summons which is made during the hearing of the appeal or at a preliminary hearing, such application shall be made orally to the court, or (as the case may be) the judge advocate, who shall determine the application and give such directions as appear to be appropriate.

(3) In this Schedule—

(a) references to any stipulated evidence, document or thing are to any evidence, document or thing whose giving or production is proposed to be required by the witness summons; and

(b) references to the directed person are to the person to whom the witness summons is proposed to be directed.

4.—(1) If—

(a) a document or thing is produced in pursuance of a requirement imposed by a witness summons under paragraph 2,

(b) the person applying for the summons concludes that a requirement imposed by the summons under paragraph 1(2) is no longer needed, and

(c) he makes an application to the court in accordance with paragraph 5 that the summons shall be of no further effect, the court may direct accordingly.

(2) If a direction is given under this paragraph the court administration officer shall notify the person to whom the witness summons is directed as to the effect of the direction.

5.—(1) An application for a direction under paragraph 4 that a witness summons shall be of no further effect shall be made in writing to the court administration officer as soon as reasonably practicable after the document or thing has been produced for inspection in pursuance of a requirement imposed by the witness summons under paragraph 2.

(2) The application shall state that the applicant concludes that the requirement imposed by the witness summons under paragraph 1(2) is no longer needed.

6.—(1) A person to whom a witness summons issued under paragraph 1 is directed may apply to the court for a direction that the summons shall be of no effect.

(2) The court may make such a direction if it is satisfied that the person concerned cannot give any evidence likely to be material evidence or, as the case may be, produce any document or thing likely to be material evidence or that for any other reason the witness summons should be of no effect.

(3) The court may refuse to make a direction if any requirement relating to the making of an application for a direction under this paragraph is not fulfilled.

7.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (5), an application for a direction under paragraph 6 shall be made in writing to the court administration officer and shall set out—

- (a) the reasons why the applicant considers that he cannot give any evidence likely to be material evidence or, as the case may be, produce any document or thing likely to be material evidence; or
- (b) where there are any other reasons why the applicant considers that the witness summons should be of no effect, those reasons.

(2) On receiving the application, the court administration officer shall serve notice of the application on the person on whose application the witness summons was issued.

(3) The court shall not grant or, as the case may be, refuse the application unless the applicant and the person on whose application the witness summons has been issued have been given an opportunity of making representations, whether at a hearing or (where they agree to do so) in writing without a hearing.

(4) In a case where the witness summons to which the application relates imposed a requirement to produce any document or thing, then if—

- (a) the applicant can produce that document or thing, but
- (b) he seeks to satisfy the court that the document or thing is not likely to be material evidence or that for some other reason it should not be produced, the applicant must, unless the court directs otherwise, arrange for the document or thing to be available at the hearing of the application.

(5) In the case of an application which is made during the hearing of the appeal or at a preliminary hearing, such application shall be made orally to the court, or (as the case may be) the judge advocate, who shall determine the application and give such directions as appear to be appropriate.

(6) Where the application is made otherwise than at the hearing of the appeal or at a preliminary hearing, the court administration officer shall notify the applicant and the person on whose application the witness summons was issued of the decision of the court in relation to the application.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules regulate the practice and procedure to be followed in proceedings before the summary appeal court. The summary appeal court is established under section 52FF of the Naval Discipline Act 1957 (“the Act”), as inserted by section 14 of the Armed Forces Discipline Act 2000, to hear appeals against findings recorded and punishments awarded on summary trial.

Part I of the Rules contains provisions which apply generally to proceedings before the summary appeal court. These include provisions dealing with the service of documents (rules 3 and 4), the circumstances in which hearings before the court may be held in camera (rule 5), and the legal representation of appellants (rules 6 and 7).

Part II makes provision with respect to the bringing and abandonment of appeals. Rule 8 and Schedule 2 specify the form in which notice of appeal is to be given. Section 52FK(2) and (3) of the Act enables the court to give leave to extend the period for bringing an appeal and to give leave for an appeal to be brought out of time. Rules 9 to 11 specify the practice and procedure to be followed in determining an application for leave under either of those subsections. Section 71B(5A) and (5B) of the Act allows the authority carrying out a review under that section, with the leave of the summary appeal court, to refer any finding or punishment awarded to the court to be considered or re-considered by it as on an appeal. Rules 12 and 13 specify the practice and procedure to be followed in determining an application for leave made under either of those subsections. Rule 15 enables an appeal to be abandoned at any time before its determination, and specifies the procedure to be followed where the appeal is abandoned prior to the hearing.

Part III specifies the procedure to be followed on the bringing of an appeal. Rule 16 requires the prosecuting authority as the respondent to give notice indicating whether or not he intends to contest an appeal against finding. Rule 17 prescribes the practice to be followed by the court where the respondent gives notice that he does not intend to contest an appeal, including specifying the circumstances in which the functions of the court can be exercised by a judge advocate sitting alone. Rules 18, 19 and 21 make provision as to the documents and other material to be made available by the respondent to the appellant. Rule 22 requires the court administration officer to give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of the appeal, and to give particulars of the persons who are to hear the appeal.

Part IV makes provision with respect to the constitution of the summary appeal court in hearing particular appeals. Rule 23 specifies the circumstances in which persons who are not qualified for membership of the court under section 52FH of the Act may nevertheless sit as members of the court hearing an appeal. Rule 24 identifies the persons who, although otherwise qualified for membership of the court, cannot sit as members of the court to hear particular appeals. Rule 25 requires the court administration officer to specify two reserve members for the hearing of an appeal (known as “spare members”). Rule 26 makes provision for the appointment of court officials.

Part V makes provision with respect to the admissibility of evidence (rules 27 and 28); the circumstances in which evidence can be given by live TV link (rule 29); the summoning of witnesses (rule 30 and Schedule 4); and the administration of oaths and affirmations to witnesses and other persons attending hearings of the court (rule 31 and Schedule 5).
