PROBATION

The Local Probation Boards (Appointment) Regulations 2000

Made - - - - 21st December 2000
22nd December
Laid before Parliament 2000
Coming into force - - 22nd January 2001

In exercise of the powers conferred on him by paragraphs 2(4) and (6) and 3(4) of Schedule 1 to the Criminal Justice and Court Services Act 2000 (“the 2000 Act”)(1), the Secretary of State hereby makes the following Regulations:

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Local Probation Boards (Appointment) Regulations 2000 and shall come into force on 22nd January 2001.
2. A local probation board shall have a maximum of 15 members.
3. A member of a local probation board shall be at least eighteen years of age on appointment.
4. The following shall not be appointed as a member of a local probation board:
 - (a) a person employed under a contract of employment with a local probation board; or
 - (b) a person who is subject to the notification requirements of Part 1 of the Sex Offenders Act 1997(2).
- 5.—(1) Persons appointed to a local probation board shall, so far as practicable, be representative of the local community in the board’s area.
 - (2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), where practicable, four of the persons appointed to a board shall be justices of the peace for a commission area falling within the area of the board and two of the persons so appointed shall be members of a local authority for a local government area (within the meaning of section 270 of the Local Government Act 1972) which falls within the area of the board.
 - (3) Persons appointed to a local probation board shall, so far as practicable, live or work (or have lived or worked) in the board’s area.
6. A member of a local probation board other than the chief officer shall be appointed for a term of three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(1) 2000 c. 43.
(2) 1997 c. 51.

7. Save for a chief officer, no person shall serve more than two terms as a member of a local probation board.

8.—(1) The Secretary of State may suspend, or remove, from office a member of a local probation board, by giving notice in writing on one of the following grounds:

- (a) subject to paragraph (2) below, that he has failed to attend board meetings for a continuous period of two months without the consent of the board;
 - (b) that he has been convicted of a criminal offence;
 - (c) that he has become subject to the notification requirements of Part I of the Sex Offenders Act 1997;
 - (d) that a bankruptcy order has been made against him, or his estate has been sequestrated or he has made a composition or arrangement with, or granted a trust deed for, his creditors; or
 - (e) that it is considered that he is unable or unfit to discharge his functions as a member.
- (2) A member of a local probation board shall not be removed from office under paragraph (1) (a) above if in the opinion of the Secretary of State he has good reason for the non-attendance.
