
STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2000 No. 726

The Motor Vehicles (Compulsory Insurance) Regulations 2000

Amendment of the Road Traffic Act 1988 in respect of motor insurance requirements

- 2.—(1) The Road Traffic Act 1988(1) is amended in accordance with paragraphs (2) to (6) below.
- (2) In section 143 (users of motor vehicles to be insured or secured against third party risks)—
- (a) in subsection (1)(a), after “road” there shall be inserted “or other public place”;
 - (b) in subsection (1)(b), after “road” there shall be inserted “or other public place”.
- (3) In section 145(3)(a) (requirements in respect of policies of insurance), after “road” there shall be inserted “or other public place”.
- (4) In section 146(4) (requirements in respect of securities), after “road ” there shall be inserted “or other public place”.
- (5) In section 165(1)(b) (obligation to provide name and address and produce documents to constable), after “road” there shall be inserted “or other public place”.
- (6) In section 170 (duty to stop and report accident)—
- (a) in subsection (1), after “on a road” there shall be inserted “ or other public place”,
 - (b) in subsection (1)(b)(iii), after “the road” there shall be inserted “ or place”.

(1) 1988 c. 52. Sections 165(1) and section 170(1) were amended respectively by the Road Traffic Act 1991, Schedule 4, paragraphs 69 and 72.