2001 No. 1403

The Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 (Part V Exemption: Educational Institutions and Health Sector Bodies) Order 2001

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999 (Part V Exemption: Educational Institutions and Health Sector Bodies) Order 2001 and shall come into force on 30th April 2001.

Interpretation

2. In this Order—

“the Act” means the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999;

“immigration advice” and “immigration services” have the same meanings as in section 82 of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999; and

“students' union” means—

- (a) in England, Wales and Scotland, a students' union within the meaning of Part II of the Education Act 1994⁽¹⁾, and
- (b) in Northern Ireland, a body listed in Schedule 1 to this Order.

Exemption of educational institutions

3. Section 84(1) of the Act (provision of immigration services) shall not apply to an educational institution described in Schedule 2 to this Order, or to a person employed by or on behalf of such an institution when acting as such, or to a students' union promoting the general interests of its members as students at such an institution or representing the generality of students at such an institution, or to a person employed by or on behalf of such a students' union when acting as such.

Exemption of health sector bodies

4. Section 84(1) of the Act (provision of immigration services) shall not apply to a health sector body described in Schedule 3 to this Order, or to a person employed by or on behalf of such a body when acting as such.
