Placing of the order

- 11.—(1) Unless parties who are not consumers have agreed otherwise, where the recipient of the service places his order through technological means, a service provider shall—
  - (a) acknowledge receipt of the order to the recipient of the service without undue delay and by electronic means; and
  - (b) make available to the recipient of the service appropriate, effective and accessible technical means allowing him to identify and correct input errors prior to the placing of the order.
  - (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a) above—
    - (a) the order and the acknowledgement of receipt will be deemed to be received when the parties to whom they are addressed are able to access them; and
    - (b) the acknowledgement of receipt may take the form of the provision of the service paid for where that service is an information society service.
- (3) The requirements of paragraph (1) above shall not apply to contracts concluded exclusively by exchange of electronic mail or by equivalent individual communications.
