EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends Part VA of the Local Government Act 1972. Part VA (sections 100A to 100K) of the Act contains provisions about access to meetings and documents relating to those meetings of principal councils in England and Wales, their committees and sub-committees. In particular, public notice of a meeting must normally be given at least three clear days before the meeting is held. The agenda and certain other documents must be open to inspection at least three clear days before the meeting. An item of business may not normally be considered at a meeting unless a copy of the agenda including the item has been available for public inspection for three clear days before the meeting.

This Order extends each of these periods of three clear days to five clear days as respects principal councils in England, their committees and sub-committees.
