

---

STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

---

2004 No. 652

The Ministry of Defence Police
Appeal Tribunals Regulations 2004

Attendance of witnesses and production of documents

11.—(1) In relation to a hearing before a Ministry of Defence Police appeals tribunal at which any person is required to attend to give evidence or to produce documents in accordance with regulation 10, section 250(2) and (3) of the Local Government Act 1972<sup>(1)</sup> apply in England and Wales and section 210(4) and (5) of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973<sup>(2)</sup> apply in Scotland as if—

- (a) references to a local enquiry were references to such a hearing,
- (b) references to the person appointed to hold the enquiry, or to the person holding it, were references to the chairman of the tribunal, and
- (c) references to section 250 or, as the case may be, section 210 were references to this regulation.