The Occupational Pension Schemes
(Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations 2005

Made - - - - 28th July 2005
Laid before Parliament 29th July 2005
Coming into force in accordance with regulation 1

The Secretary of State for Work and Pensions, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by sections 10(5)(a) and (7)(a), 69(2), 206(4)(a), 207(2), 307(1)(b) and (2)(b), 315(2), (4) and (5) and 318(1) and (4)(a) of, and paragraph 23 of Schedule 7 to, the Pensions Act 2004⁽¹⁾, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, by this instrument, which contains regulations made before the end of the period of six months beginning with the coming into force of the provisions of that Act by virtue of which the regulations are made⁽²⁾, makes the following Regulations:

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Occupational Pension Schemes (Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations 2005 and, except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (2) to (4), shall come into force on 19th August 2005.

(2) Paragraphs (3) and (4) of regulation 10 (amendment of the Multi-employer Regulations), and this paragraph in so far as it applies those paragraphs of that regulation, shall come into force on 1st August 2005.

(3) Paragraphs (1) to (6) of regulation 9 (amendment of the Compensation Regulations) shall come into force on 5th December 2005.

(4) Paragraph (7) of regulation 9 shall come into force—

(a) in respect of a person under the age of 25 on 5th April 2006 who is entitled to receive compensation prior to 6th April 2006, on the date that he attains the age of 25; or

(1) 2004 c. 35. The Pensions Act 2004 is modified in its application to partially guaranteed schemes by S.I. 2005/277, in its application to hybrid schemes by S.I. 2005/449, and in its application to multi-employer schemes by S.I. 2005/441 (as amended by S.I. 2005/993). Section 318(1) is cited because of the meaning there given to “modifications”, “prescribed” and “regulations”.

(2) See section 317 of the Pensions Act 2004, which provides that the Secretary of State must consult such persons as he considers appropriate before making regulations by virtue of the provisions of that Act (other than Part 8). This duty does not apply where regulations are made before the end of the period of six months beginning with the coming into force of the provisions of the Act by virtue of which the regulations are made.

(b) in respect of any other person, on 6th April 2006;

(5) In these Regulations—

“the Act” means the Pensions Act 2004;

“the Compensation Regulations” means the Pension Protection Fund (Compensation) Regulations 2005(3);

“the Entry Rules Regulations” means the Pension Protection Fund (Entry Rules) Regulations 2005(4);

“the Multi-employer Regulations” means the Pension Protection Fund (Multi-employer Schemes) (Modification) Regulations 2005(5);

“the Notifiable Events Regulations” means the Pensions Regulator (Notifiable Events) Regulations 2005(6);

“the Provision of Information Regulations” means the Pension Protection Fund (Provision of Information) Regulations 2005(7);

“the Review and Reconsideration Regulations” means the Pension Protection Fund (Review and Reconsideration of Reviewable Matters) Regulations 2005(8);

“the Valuation Regulations” means the Pension Protection Fund (Valuation) Regulations 2005(9).

Amendment of section 10 of, and Schedule 2 to, the Act

2.—(1) After subsection (6)(h) of section 10 of the Act (functions exercisable by the Determinations Panel), insert—

“(ha) section 58(7) of that Act (power of the Regulator in prescribed circumstances to extend or further extend the period referred to in section 58(6) of that Act in relation to a schedule of contributions);

(hb) section 60(7) of that Act (power of the Regulator in prescribed circumstances to extend or further extend the period applicable under section 60(3) of that Act in relation to securing an increase in value);”.

(2) After paragraph 15 of Schedule 2 to the Act(10) (the reserved regulatory functions), insert—

“15A. The power under section 58(7) to extend or further extend the period referred to in section 58(6) of that Act in relation to a schedule of contributions for an occupational pension scheme.

15B. The power under section 60(7) to extend or further extend the period applicable under section 60(3) of that Act in relation to securing an increase in the value of the assets of an occupational pension scheme.”.

(3) Paragraphs (ha) and (hb) of section 10(6) of, and paragraphs 15A and 15B of Schedule 2 to, the Act (as inserted by paragraphs (1) and (2)) shall only have effect in the case of applications made by virtue of sections 58(7) and 60(7) of the Pensions Act 1995(11) on or after the date on which

(3) S.I. 2005/670, amended by S.I. 2005/993.

(4) S.I. 2005/590, amended by S.I. 2005/993.

(5) S.I. 2005/441, amended by S.I. 2005/993.

(6) S.I. 2005/900.

(7) S.I. 2005/674.

(8) S.I. 2005/669, amended by S.I. 2005/993.

(9) S.I. 2005/672, amended by S.I. 2005/993.

(10) Schedule 2 was amended by S.I. 2005/703.

(11) 1995 c. 26. Section 58 was amended by section 18 of, and paragraph 14(1) of Schedule 2 to, the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999 (c. 30).

these Regulations come into force for the exercise of the power to extend or further extend under section 58(7) or 60(7) of that Act.

Amendment of Schedule 9 to the Act

3. After paragraph 7 of Schedule 9 to the Act(12) (reviewable matters), insert—

“7A. Any determination by the Board under section 141(2) (determination on a review of an ill health pension that compensation in respect of the pension is to be determined in the prescribed manner).”.

Insertion of the definition of “assessment date”

4.—(1) In each of the provisions specified in paragraph (2), in the appropriate alphabetical place, insert—

““the assessment date” means the date on which the assessment period in relation to the scheme or section, or (where there has been more than one such assessment period) the last one, began;”.

(2) The specified provisions are—

- (a) paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Compensation Regulations (citation, commencement and interpretation);
- (b) paragraph (3) of regulation 1 of the Entry Rules Regulations (citation, interpretation and commencement);
- (c) paragraph (2) of regulation 1(13) of the Multi-employer Regulations (citation, commencement and interpretation);
- (d) paragraph (1) of regulation 2 of the Provision of Information Regulations (interpretation);
- (e) paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Review and Reconsideration Regulations (citation, commencement and interpretation); and
- (f) paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Valuation Regulations (commencement, citation and interpretation).

Amendment of the definition of “employer” of an occupational pension scheme that has no active members

5.—(1) For the first definition of “employer” (“employer” in relation to an occupational pension scheme that has no active members) in each of the provisions specified in paragraph (2), substitute—

““employer”, in relation to—

- (a) an occupational pension scheme which is not a multi-employer scheme; or
- (b) a single-employer section of a segregated scheme,

which has no active members, includes the person who was the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates immediately before the time at which the scheme or section ceased to have any active members in relation to it;”.

(2) The specified provisions are—

- (a) paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Compensation Regulations;
- (b) paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Review and Reconsideration Regulations; and

(12) Schedule 9 was amended by regulation 4 of S.I. 2005/600 and was also modified, in relation to a partially guaranteed scheme, by regulation 3 of that instrument. Schedule 9 was further modified, in relation to the functions of the Pensions Compensation Board, by article 4(11) of S.I. 2005/1720.

(13) Regulation 1 was amended by regulation 5(2) of S.I. 2005/993.

- (c) paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Valuation Regulations.
- (3) For paragraph (4) of regulation 1 of the Entry Rules Regulations, substitute—
- “(4) In Part 2 of the Act and these Regulations, “employer”, in relation to—
- (a) an occupational pension scheme which is not a multi-employer scheme; or
- (b) a single-employer section of a segregated scheme,
- which has no active members, includes the person who was the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates immediately before the time at which the scheme or section ceased to have any active members in relation to it.”.
- (4) For paragraph (2) of regulation 2 of the Provision of Information Regulations, substitute—
- “(2) In these Regulations, “employer”, in relation to—
- (a) an occupational pension scheme which is not a multi-employer scheme; or
- (b) a single-employer section of a segregated scheme,
- which has no active members, includes the person who was the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates immediately before the time at which the scheme or section ceased to have any active members in relation to it.”.

Amendment of the definition of “employer” in relation to a multi-employer scheme or a section of a multi-employer scheme

6.—(1) For the second definition of “employer” (“employer” in relation to a multi-employer scheme or a section of a multi-employer scheme) in each of the provisions specified in paragraph (2), substitute—

““employer”, in relation to a non-segregated scheme or a multi-employer section of a segregated scheme—

- (a) in an assessment period, includes any person who before the assessment date has ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates unless condition A, B, C or D is satisfied where—
- (i) condition A is that a debt under section 75 of the Pensions Act 1995⁽¹⁴⁾ (deficiencies in the assets) became due from that employer and the full amount of the debt has been paid before the assessment date;
- (ii) condition B is that—
- (aa) such a debt became due;
- (bb) a legally enforceable agreement has been entered into the effect of which is to reduce the amount which may be recovered in respect of the debt; and
- (cc) the reduced amount has been paid in full before the assessment date;
- (iii) condition C is that such a debt became due but before the assessment date it is excluded from the value of the assets of the scheme or section because it is unlikely to be recovered without disproportionate costs or within a reasonable time;
- (iv) condition D is that at the time at which any such person ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates the value of the assets of the scheme or section was such that no such debt was treated as becoming due;

⁽¹⁴⁾ Section 75 was amended by section 271 of the Pensions Act 2004.

- (b) in any other case, includes any person who has ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates unless condition A, B, C or D is satisfied where—
 - (i) condition A is that a debt under section 75 of the Pensions Act 1995 became due from that employer and the full amount of the debt has been paid;
 - (ii) condition B is that—
 - (aa) such a debt became due;
 - (bb) a legally enforceable agreement has been entered into the effect of which is to reduce the amount which may be recovered in respect of the debt; and
 - (cc) the reduced amount has been paid in full;
 - (iii) condition C is that such a debt became due but it is excluded from the value of the assets of the scheme or section because it is unlikely to be recovered without disproportionate costs or within a reasonable time;
 - (iv) condition D is that at the time at which any such person ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates the value of the assets of the scheme or section was such that no such debt was treated as becoming due;”.
- (2) The specified provisions are—
 - (a) paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Compensation Regulations; and
 - (b) paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Review and Reconsideration Regulations.
- (3) For paragraph (5) of regulation 1 of the Entry Rules Regulations, substitute—
 - “(5) In these Regulations, “employer”, in relation to a non-segregated scheme or a multi-employer section of a segregated scheme—
 - (a) in an assessment period, includes any person who before the assessment date has ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates unless condition A, B, C or D is satisfied where—
 - (i) condition A is that a debt under section 75 of the 1995 Act became due from that employer and the full amount of the debt has been paid before the assessment date;
 - (ii) condition B is that—
 - (aa) such a debt became due;
 - (bb) a legally enforceable agreement has been entered into the effect of which is to reduce the amount which may be recovered in respect of the debt; and
 - (cc) the reduced amount has been paid in full before the assessment date;
 - (iii) condition C is that such a debt became due but before the assessment date it is excluded from the value of the assets of the scheme or section because it is unlikely to be recovered without disproportionate costs or within a reasonable time;
 - (iv) condition D is that at the time at which any such person ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates the value of the assets of the scheme or section was such that no such debt was treated as becoming due;

- (b) in any other case, includes any person who has ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates unless condition A, B, C or D is satisfied where—
- (i) condition A is that a debt under section 75 of the 1995 Act became due from that employer and the full amount of the debt has been paid;
 - (ii) condition B is that—
 - (aa) such a debt became due;
 - (bb) a legally enforceable agreement has been entered into the effect of which is to reduce the amount which may be recovered in respect of the debt; and
 - (cc) the reduced amount has been paid in full;
 - (iii) condition C is that such a debt became due but it is excluded from the value of the assets of the scheme or section because it is unlikely to be recovered without disproportionate costs or within a reasonable time;
 - (iv) condition D is that at the time at which any such person ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates the value of the assets of the scheme or section was such that no such debt was treated as becoming due.”.
- (4) For paragraph (3) of regulation 2 of the Provision of Information Regulations, substitute—
- “(3) In these Regulations, “employer”, in relation to a non-segregated scheme or a multi-employer section of a segregated scheme—
- (a) in an assessment period, includes any person who before the assessment date has ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates unless condition A, B, C or D is satisfied where—
 - (i) condition A is that a debt under section 75 of the Pensions Act 1995 became due from that employer and the full amount of the debt has been paid before the assessment date;
 - (ii) condition B is that—
 - (aa) such a debt became due;
 - (bb) a legally enforceable agreement has been entered into the effect of which is to reduce the amount which may be recovered in respect of the debt; and
 - (cc) the reduced amount has been paid in full before the assessment date;
 - (iii) condition C is that such a debt became due but before the assessment date it is excluded from the value of the assets of the scheme or section because it is unlikely to be recovered without disproportionate costs or within a reasonable time;
 - (iv) condition D is that at the time at which any such person ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates the value of the assets of the scheme or section was such that no such debt was treated as becoming due;
 - (b) in any other case, includes any person who has ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates unless condition A, B, C or D is satisfied where—

- (i) condition A is that a debt under section 75 of the Pensions Act 1995 became due from that employer and the full amount of the debt has been paid;
 - (ii) condition B is that—
 - (aa) such a debt became due;

 - (cc) the reduced amount has been paid in full;
 - (iii) condition C is that such a debt became due but it is excluded from the value of the assets of the scheme or section because it is unlikely to be recovered without disproportionate costs or within a reasonable time;
 - (iv) condition D is that at the time at which any such person ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates the value of the assets of the scheme or section was such that no such debt was treated as becoming due.”.
- (5) For the second definition of “employer” in paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Valuation Regulations, substitute—
 - ““employer”, in relation to a non-segregated scheme or a multi-employer section of a segregated scheme—
 - (a) in an assessment period, includes any person who before the assessment date has ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates unless condition A, B, C or D is satisfied where—
 - (i) condition A is that a section 75 debt became due from that employer and the full amount of the debt has been paid before the assessment date;
 - (ii) condition B is that—
 - (aa) such a debt became due;
 - (bb) a legally enforceable agreement has been entered into the effect of which is to reduce the amount which may be recovered in respect of the debt; and
 - (cc) the reduced amount has been paid in full before the assessment date;
 - (iii) condition C is that such a debt became due but before the assessment date it is excluded from the value of the assets of the scheme or section because it is unlikely to be recovered without disproportionate costs or within a reasonable time;
 - (iv) condition D is that at the time at which any such person ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates the value of the assets of the scheme or section was such that no such debt was treated as becoming due;
 - (b) in any other case, includes any person who has ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates unless condition A, B, C or D is satisfied where—
 - (i) condition A is that a section 75 debt became due from that employer and the full amount of the debt has been paid;
 - (ii) condition B is that—
 - (aa) such a debt became due;
 - (bb) a legally enforceable agreement has been entered into the effect of which is to reduce the amount which may be recovered in respect of the debt; and

- (cc) the reduced amount has been paid in full;
- (iii) condition C is that such a debt became due but it is excluded from the value of the assets of the scheme or section because it is unlikely to be recovered without disproportionate costs or within a reasonable time;
- (iv) condition D is that at the time at which any such person ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates the value of the assets of the scheme or section was such that no such debt was treated as becoming due;”.

Insertion of definition of “non-segregated scheme”

7.—(1) In each of the provisions specified in paragraph (2), in the appropriate alphabetical place, insert—

““non-segregated scheme” means a multi-employer scheme which is not a segregated scheme;”.

(2) The specified provisions are—

- (a) paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Compensation Regulations;
- (b) paragraph (1) of regulation 2 of the Provision of Information Regulations;
- (c) paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Review and Reconsideration Regulations; and
- (d) paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Valuation Regulations.

Insertion of the definition of “segregated scheme”

8.—(1) In each of the provisions specified in paragraph (2), in the appropriate alphabetical place, insert—

““segregated scheme” means a multi-employer scheme which is divided into two or more sections where—

- (a) any contributions payable to the scheme by an employer in relation to the scheme or by a member are allocated to that employer’s or that member’s section; and
- (b) a specified proportion of the assets of the scheme is attributable to each section of the scheme and cannot be used for the purposes of any other section;”.

(2) The specified provisions are—

- (a) paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Compensation Regulations;
- (b) paragraph (1) of regulation 2 of the Provision of Information Regulations;
- (c) paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Review and Reconsideration Regulations; and
- (d) paragraph (2) of regulation 1 of the Valuation Regulations.

Amendment of the Compensation Regulations

9.—(1) The Compensation Regulations shall be amended in accordance with the following provisions of this regulation.

(2) In paragraph (2) of regulation 1—

(a) after the definition of “qualifying course”, insert—

““the register” means the system for keeping records provided under section 30(2) of the Civil Partnership Act 2004(15) (the Registrar General and the register);

“relevant partner” means a person of either sex who was not married to, or in a civil partnership with, the member and who was living with the member as if that person and the member were husband and wife; and for the purposes of these Regulations, two adults of the same sex are to be regarded as living together as husband and wife if, but only if, they would be regarded as living together as husband and wife were they instead two adults of opposite sex;” and

(b) after the definition of “transferor”, omit the definition of “relevant partner”.

(3) In regulation 3 (circumstances where a widow or widower is not entitled to periodic compensation), for “where there is no provision to pay a survivor’s pension under the admissible rules of the scheme.”, substitute—

“where there is—

(a) a valid nomination made by the member in accordance with either—

(i) the admissible rules of the scheme; or

(ii) regulation 4(2)(a),

to pay a survivor’s pension to a relevant partner; or

(b) no provision to pay a survivor’s pension under the admissible rules of the scheme.”.

(4) In regulation 4 (compensation for surviving dependants)—

(a) in paragraph (2), for “In the case of a relevant partner”, substitute “Subject to paragraph (2A), in the case of a relevant partner”; and

(b) after paragraph (2), insert—

“(2A) No compensation may be paid under paragraph (2) where the member had a civil partner, or a spouse, at the date of his death, and there is no valid nomination in favour of the relevant partner.

(2B) Subject to paragraph (2C), in the case of a civil partner, the circumstances are—

(a) where there is provision to pay a survivor’s pension to a civil partner or spouse of the member under the admissible rules of the scheme (whether discretionary or otherwise);

(b) the surviving civil partner has provided the Board, or during the assessment period the trustees or managers of the eligible scheme, with a certified copy of the entry in the register relating to the civil partnership; and

(c) the civil partnership was still in existence at the date of the member’s death.

(2C) No compensation may be paid under paragraph (2B) where there is a valid nomination made by the member in accordance with either—

(a) the admissible rules of the scheme; or

(b) regulation 4(2)(a),

to pay a survivor’s pension to a relevant partner.”.

(5) In regulation 5(16) (amount and duration of periodic compensation in the case of relevant partners), after “compensation is payable to a relevant partner”, insert “or civil partner.”.

(6) In paragraphs (2) and (3) of regulation 6 (amount of periodic compensation that can be paid in the case of surviving dependants), for “surviving spouse or relevant partner”, substitute “surviving spouse, relevant partner or civil partner”.

(7) In regulation 7 (period of payment), for “25”, in each place it occurs, substitute “23”.

Amendment of the Multi-employer Regulations

10.—(1) The Multi-employer Regulations shall be amended in accordance with the following provisions of this regulation.

(2) In regulation 1(17) (citation, commencement and interpretation)—

(a) in paragraph (2), in the appropriate alphabetical place, insert—

““employer”, in relation to a single-employer section of a segregated scheme which has no active members, includes the person who was the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates immediately before the time at which the scheme or section ceased to have any active members in relation to it;” and

(b) for paragraph (3), substitute—

“(3) In the application of Part 2 of the Act, the definition of “multi-employer scheme” in section 307(4) of the Act and of these Regulations, “employer”, in relation to a multi-employer scheme that is not a segregated scheme or a multi-employer section of a segregated scheme—

(a) in an assessment period, includes any person who before the assessment date has ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates unless condition A, B, C or D is satisfied where—

(i) condition A is that a debt under section 75 of the Pensions Act 1995 (deficiencies in the assets) became due from that employer and the full amount of the debt has been paid before the assessment date;

(ii) condition B is that—

(aa) such a debt became due;

(bb) a legally enforceable agreement has been entered into the effect of which is to reduce the amount which may be recovered in respect of the debt; and

(cc) the reduced amount has been paid in full before the assessment date;

(iii) condition C is that such a debt became due but before the assessment date it is excluded from the value of the assets of the scheme or section because it is unlikely to be recovered without disproportionate costs or within a reasonable time;

(iv) condition D is that at the time at which any such person ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates the value of the assets of the scheme or section was such that no such debt was treated as becoming due;

(b) in any other case, includes any person who before the assessment date has ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates unless condition A, B, C or D is satisfied where—

(i) condition A is that a debt under section 75 of the Pensions Act 1995 became due from that employer and the full amount of the debt has been paid before the assessment date;

(ii) condition B is that—

(aa) such a debt became due;

- (bb) a legally enforceable agreement has been entered into the effect of which is to reduce the amount which may be recovered in respect of the debt; and
 - (cc) the reduced amount has been paid in full before the assessment date;
 - (iii) condition C is that such a debt became due but before the assessment date it is excluded from the value of the assets of the scheme or section because it is unlikely to be recovered without disproportionate costs or within a reasonable time;
 - (iv) condition D is that at the time at which any such person ceased to be the employer of persons in the description of employment to which the scheme or section relates the value of the assets of the scheme or section was such that no such debt was treated as becoming due.”.
- (3) For Part 3 (segregated schemes: multi-employer sections without requirement for partial wind up on withdrawal of participating employer), substitute—

“PART 3

SEGREGATED SCHEMES:

MULTI-EMPLOYER SECTIONS WITHOUT REQUIREMENT FOR PARTIAL WIND UP ON WITHDRAWAL OF A PARTICIPATING EMPLOYER

Application and effect

14.—(1) This regulation applies to a multi-employer section of a segregated scheme the rules of which do not provide for the partial winding up of the section when an employer in relation to the section ceases to participate in the scheme.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this Part, in the case of a section of a scheme to which this regulation applies—

- (a) Part 2 of the Act, except Chapter 4 (fraud compensation), shall be read as if it contained the modifications provided for by this Part; and
 - (b) references in Part 2 of the Act, except in Chapter 4, to—
 - (i) “scheme rules” shall be read as if they were references to “scheme rules relating to the section”;
 - (ii) “the scheme” shall be read as if they were references to “the section”;
 - (iii) “the employer” shall be read as if they were references to “an employer in relation to the section”; and
 - (iv) “trustees or managers of the scheme” shall, in relation to a multi-employer section of a segregated scheme, be read as if they were references to “trustees or managers with ultimate responsibility for the administration of the section”.
- (3) Paragraph (2) shall not have effect in relation to section 174 of the Act (initial levy).

Notification of insolvency events, confirmation of scheme status etc.

15.—(1) Section 120 of the Act (duty to notify insolvency events in respect of employers) shall be modified in its application to a section of a scheme to which regulation 14 applies so that it shall be read as if—

- (a) for subsection (1), there were substituted the following subsection—

“(1) This section applies where, in the case of a section of a multi-employer scheme which is divided into two or more sections (“a segregated scheme”) with at least two employers in relation to that section of the scheme (“a multi-employer section”), an insolvency event occurs in relation to any employer in relation to that section.”; and

- (b) after subsection (2), there were inserted the following subsection—

“(2A) Where the trustees or managers of a multi-employer section of a segregated scheme receive a notice from an insolvency practitioner under subsection (2), they must send a copy of that notice as soon as practicable to all the employers in relation to that section of the scheme and to the trustees or managers of each section of the scheme (if different).”.

(2) Section 122 of the Act (insolvency practitioner’s duty to issue notices confirming status of scheme) shall be modified in its application to a section of a scheme to which regulation 14 applies so that it shall be read as if—

- (a) for subsection (1), there were substituted the following subsection—

“(1) This section applies where an insolvency event has occurred in relation to any employer in relation to a multi-employer section of a segregated scheme.”;

- (b) in subsection (2)—

(i) for the words “the employer”, there were substituted the words “an employer”;

(ii) in paragraph (a), after the words “a scheme rescue is not possible”, there were inserted the words “in relation to the relevant section of the scheme”; and

(iii) in paragraph (b), after the words “a scheme rescue has occurred”, there were inserted the words “in relation to the relevant section of the scheme”;

- (c) in paragraph (a) of subsection (3), for the words “the employer”, there were substituted the words “an employer”;

- (d) in subsection (4)—

(i) for the words “the employer”, there were substituted the words “an employer”; and

(ii) for the words “in relation to the scheme”, there were substituted the words “in relation to the section”;

- (e) in subsection (5)—

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Pensions Act 2004 (c. 35) (“the Act”), the Pension Protection Fund (Compensation) Regulations 2005 (S.I.2005/670) (“the Compensation Regulations”), the Pension Protection Fund (Entry Rules) Regulations 2005 (S.I. 2005/590) (“the Entry Rules Regulations”), the Pension Protection Fund (Multi-employer Schemes) (Modification) Regulations 2005 (S.I. 2005/441) (“the Multi-employer Regulations”), the Pensions Regulator (Notifiable Events) Regulations 2005 (S.I. 2005/900) (“the Notifiable Events Regulations”), the Pension Protection Fund (Provision of Information) Regulations 2005 (S.I. 2005/674) (“the Provision of Information Regulations”), the Pension Protection Fund (Review and Reconsideration of Reviewable Matters) Regulations 2005 (S.I. 2005/669) (“the Review and Reconsideration Regulations”) and the Pension Protection Fund (Valuation) Regulations 2005 (S.I. 2005/672) (“the Valuation Regulations”).

Regulation 2 amends section 10 of, and Schedule 2 to, the Act by adding the power to extend or further extend prescribed periods under sections 58(6) and 60(3) of the Pensions Act 1995 (c. 26) (“the 1995 Act”) to the list of reserved regulatory functions listed in Schedule 2 to the Act. The amendments reserve the exercise of those powers to the Determinations Panel in the circumstances mentioned in section 10(2) of the Act.

Regulation 3 amends Schedule 9 to the Act by adding a determination made by the Board under section 141(2) of the Act to the reviewable matters prescribed in that Schedule.

Regulation 4 inserts a definition of “assessment date” into the Compensation Regulations, the Entry Rules Regulations, the Multi-employer Regulations, the Provision of Information Regulations, the Review and Reconsideration Regulations and the Valuation Regulations.

Regulation 5 substitutes a new definition of “employer”, where certain occupational pension schemes have no active members, into the Compensation Regulations, the Entry Rules Regulations, the Provision of Information Regulations, the Review and Reconsideration Regulations and the Valuation Regulations.

Regulation 6 substitutes a new definition of “employer”, in relation to a multi-employer scheme or a section of a multi-employer scheme, into the Compensation Regulations, the Entry Rules Regulations, the Provision of Information Regulations, the Review and Reconsideration Regulations and the Valuation Regulations.

Regulation 7 inserts a definition of “non-segregated scheme” into the Compensation Regulations, the Provision of Information Regulations, the Review and Reconsideration Regulations and the Valuation Regulations.

Regulation 8 inserts a definition of “segregated scheme” into the Compensation Regulations, the Provision of Information Regulations, the Review and Reconsideration Regulations and the Valuation Regulations.

Regulation 9 extends the Compensation Regulations to civil partners. It provides that—a civil partner will be entitled to receive a survivor’s pension where the admissible rules of the scheme allow for such a payment to be made. It also makes amendments that provide for the amount of such compensation both where there are dependants of the civil partnership and where there are not;

where a member has nominated a relevant partner to receive a survivor's pension under the admissible rules of the scheme, a surviving spouse or civil partner shall not be entitled to compensation;

where a surviving spouse or civil partner is entitled to compensation and there is no nomination in place in favour of a relevant partner, the relevant partner shall not be entitled to compensation;

the maximum age at which dependant's compensation can be paid is reduced from 25 to 23, although a person entitled to dependant's compensation prior to 6th April 2006 will continue to receive such compensation until the age of 25.

Regulation 10 amends the Multi-employer Regulations. In particular—paragraph (2) substitutes the definitions of “employer” in relation to an occupational pension scheme with no active members and a multi-employer scheme or a section of a multi-employer scheme; paragraph (3) substitutes Part 3, which modifies Part 2 of the Act as it applies to a section of a segregated scheme with at least two employers in relation to that section. The substituted Part 3 broadens the circumstances in which an application can be made to the Board of the Pension Protection Fund (“the Board”) under section 129(1) of the Act for it to assume responsibility for a section of a scheme to which Part 3 applies; and paragraph (4) substitutes Part 6, which modifies Part 2 of the Act as it applies to certain multi-employer schemes which are not divided into two or more sections in specified circumstances. The substituted Part 6 broadens the circumstances in which an application can be made to the Board under section 129(1) of the Act for it to assume responsibility for a scheme to which Part 6 applies.

Regulation 11 amends the Notifiable Events Regulations, so that certain events which involved the taking of a decision about a certain action are now expanded to include a requirement to notify the Pensions Regulator when the action itself occurs in circumstances where a decision about that action was not required to be taken.

Regulation 12 amends regulation 2 of the Provision of Information Regulations to correct a typographical error and makes a further consequential amendment to omit the definition of “assessment date” in paragraph 1(1) of Schedule 2 to those Regulations.

Regulation 13 amends the Review and Reconsideration Regulations by prescribing the interested person in relation to the reviewable matter specified in paragraph 7A of Schedule 9 to the Act as inserted by regulation 3 of these Regulations.

Regulation 14 revokes paragraphs (2), (4) and (7) of regulation 5 of the Occupational Pension Schemes and Pension Protection Fund (Amendment) Regulations 2005 (S.I. 2005/993) as a consequence of the amendment of the Multi-employer Regulations by regulation 11 of these Regulations.

As these Regulations are made before the expiry of the period of six months beginning with the coming into force of the provisions of the Act by virtue of which they are made, the requirement for the Secretary of State to consult such persons as he considers appropriate does not apply.

A full regulatory impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as it has no impact on the costs of business.
