Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Registered Pension Schemes (Discharge of Liabilities under Sections 267 and 268 of the Finance Act 2004) Regulations 2005 and shall come into force on 6th April 2006.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations—

“company” and “year of assessment” have the meanings given to them in section 832 of the Income and Corporation Taxes Act 1988(b).

Time limits for, and content of section 267 and 268 applications

3.—(1) Any section 267 application or section 268 application must be made in writing—

This is subject to the following qualification.

(2) If an assessment is made under section 36 of the Taxes Management Act 1970 (assessments for the purpose of making good any loss to the Crown from a loss of income tax, etc.) (a), the section 267 application or section 268 application (as the case may be) must be made within two years of the date on which the assessment is issued as stated in the notice of that assessment.

(3) A section 267 application or section 268 application shall set out particulars of the ground relied on under the relevant section.

Supplementary applications

5. Where a section 267 application or section 268 application has been made and the applicant subsequently discovers that an error or mistake has been made in it, the applicant may make a supplementary application in the same manner, and within the same time, as is allowed for making the original application.
