(4) Subject to any direction by the Secretary of State under section 52(1) of the 1983 Act, any duty on a relevant registration officer to supply records or lists or make them available for inspection under this Part imposes only a duty to provide that information in the form in which he holds it.

Supply of marked registers and lists after an election

117.—(1) Any person entitled to be supplied in accordance with regulation 100, 103, 105, 106, 108, 109 or 113 above, with copies of the full register at a particular parliamentary or local government election, is also a person entitled, subject to this regulation and to regulation 119, to request that a relevant registration officer supply copies of the relevant part (within the meaning of those regulations) of the marked register or lists he is required to keep.

(2) A person whose entitlement to request copies of the marked register or lists under paragraph (1) arises from being in a category of persons covered by regulation 103, 105, 106 or 108 before a particular election, shall be entitled to request those documents regardless of whether he remains in a entitled category after that election for which the marked register or list was prepared.

(3) A request under paragraph (1) shall be made in writing and shall—

- (a) specify which of the marked register or lists (or the relevant part of the register or lists) are requested;
- (b) state whether a printed copy of the records or lists is requested or a copy in data form,

- (c) state the purposes for which the marked register or lists will be used and why the supply or purchase of a copy of the full register or unmarked lists would not be sufficient to achieve that purpose.
- (4) The relevant registration officer shall supply a copy of the relevant part of the marked register or lists where a request is duly made, and—
 - (a) he is satisfied that the requestor needs to see the marks on the marked register or lists in order to achieve the purpose for which it is requested, and
 - (b) he has received payment of a fee calculated in accordance with regulation 120 below.
- (5) If the relevant registration officer is not satisfied in accordance with paragraph (4)(a) he may treat the request for a marked register or list as a request for information in unmarked lists under regulation 61 or for the published copy of the full register in accordance with regulation 102, or both.
- (6) A person who obtains a copy of any part of a marked register or list under this regulation may use it only for the permitted purposes specified in paragraph (2) of regulation 119, and any conditions—
 - (a) specified in that paragraph, or
 - (b) which would apply to the use of the full register under whichever of regulations 100, 103, 105, 106, 108, 109 or 113 entitled that person to obtain that document, shall apply to such use.
- (7) The conditions referred to in paragraph (6) apply to a person to whom the marked register or lists, or any information contained in it (that is not contained in the edited register) has been supplied or disclosed under those paragraphs as they apply to the person to whom those regulations apply.
- (8) Any person who has obtained or is entitled to obtain a copy of the marked register or lists under this regulation may—
 - (a) supply a copy of the marked register or lists to a processor for the purpose of processing the information contained therein, or
 - (b) procure that a processor processes and supplies to them any copy of the information in the marked register or lists which the processor has obtained under this regulation, for use in respect of the purposes for which that person is entitled to obtain such copy or information (as the case may be).

Inspection of documents open to public inspection

- 118.—(1) Any person is entitled to request that the relevant registration officer make available for inspection a copy of any of the following documents (referred to in this regulation and in regulation 119 as “the documents open to public inspection”)—

 - (b) such other documents relating to an election as the relevant registration officer is required by or under any enactment to retain for any period except—
 - (i) ballot papers
 - (ii) completed corresponding number lists;
 - (iii) certificates as to employment on the day of the election.
- (2) A request under paragraph (1) shall be made in writing and shall specify—

- (a) which documents are requested;
- (b) the purposes for which the information in any document will be used,
- (c) where the request is to inspect the marked register or lists, any reason why inspecting the full register or unmarked lists would not be sufficient to achieve that purpose,
- (d) who will inspect the documents,
- (e) the date on which they wish to inspect the documents, and
- (f) whether they would prefer to inspect the documents in a printed or data form.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), the relevant registration officer shall make the documents open to public inspection available for inspection under supervision not later than 10 days after the date of receipt of a request that has been duly made.

(4) Where a request has been made to inspect copies of the marked register or lists under paragraph (2) and the relevant registration officer is not satisfied that the purposes of the requestor cannot be met by inspection of the full register, he shall inform the requestor—

- (a) of his decision under this paragraph, and
- (b) provide the requestor with information concerning the availability of the published full register for inspection in accordance with regulation 43.

(5) A person who obtains a copy of or information in any document open to public inspection under this regulation may use it only for the permitted purposes specified in regulation 119, and any conditions—

- (a) specified in that regulation,
- (b) specified in paragraph (7) below, or
- (c) which would apply to the use of the full register under regulation 109 where such a person has obtained a copy of that document under paragraph (8), shall apply to such use.

(6) Where inspection takes place by providing the records or lists on a computer screen or otherwise in data form, the relevant registration officer shall ensure that the manner in, and equipment on which that copy is provided do not permit any person consulting that copy to—

- (a) search it by electronic means by reference to the name of any person; or
- (b) copy or transmit any part of that copy by electronic, or any other means.

(7) Subject to paragraph (8) a person who inspects a copy of a document open to public inspection, whether a printed copy or in data form, may not—

- (a) make copies of any part of it, or
- (b) record any particulars in it, except that a person who inspects a copy of the marked register or lists may make hand written notes.

(8) The relevant registration officer shall on request, supply free of charge copies of any documents open to public inspection, to a person who has inspected those documents and who is entitled to be supplied with a copy of the marked register or lists by virtue of being a person to whom regulation 109 applies.

Conditions on the use, supply and disclosure of documents open to public inspection 119.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) and (3) the restrictions on the supply, disclosure and use of information in regulations 94 and 96 shall apply to the documents open to public inspection as they apply to the full register.

(a) obtains copies of the information in the marked register or lists in accordance with regulation 117(1), or

(b) a person inspects information in accordance with regulation 118(1), the permitted purpose shall mean either—

(i) research purposes within the meaning of that term in section 33 of the Data Protection Act 1998; or

(ii) electoral purposes.

(3) Where a copy of any information was supplied in the circumstances to which regulation 118(8) applies, the permitted purpose means the purposes set out in regulation 109(4).

120. The formula used for the purpose of calculating the fee that shall be paid to the relevant registration officer by a requestor prior to their being supplied with copies of the marked register or lists (or any relevant part those documents) under paragraph (3) of regulation 117 shall be the same as for calculation of the fee for sale of the full register and notices, set out in paragraph (5) of regulation 111.”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations make amendments to the Representation of the People (England and Wales) Regulations 2001 (S.I. 2001/341) (“the 2001 Regulations”)

Regulation 2 is a consequential amendment to regulation 3 (interpretation) of the 2001 Regulations.

Regulation 3 repeals the existing offence in regulation 23 of the 2001 Regulations of providing false information in pursuance of a requisition of information by a registration officer. Section 15 of the Electoral Administration Act 2006 (c. 22) (“the 2006 Act”) has amended section 13D of the Representation of the People Act 1983 (c. 2) (“the 1983 Act”), creating a broader offence of providing false information to registration officers.

Regulation 5 inserts new regulation 25A in the 2001 Regulations to provide for a reminder to be sent in each year to each person who has an anonymous entry, as the entitlement to registration terminates under section 9C of the 1983 Act after 12 months unless a fresh application is made.

Regulation 6 makes amendments to the procedure for applications for registration consequential on anonymous registration.

Regulations 7 and 9 amend regulations 27 and 29 of the 2001 Regulations, to make provision for objections made in respect of persons already entered in the register. The amendment made to section 10A of the 1983 Act by section 12(4) of the 2006 Act clarified that such objections could be made. Regulation 9 additionally provides for registration officers to be able to determine objections without a hearing where they are of the opinion that the objection in question is clearly without merit.

Regulation 8 provides that applications for registration, when accompanied by an application for an anonymous entry, will not be available for public inspection.

Regulation 10 inserts new regulation 31A in the 2001 Regulations, to make provision for the determination of objections relating to applications for registration which have been allowed, but where the corresponding changes to the register have not yet taken effect.

Regulation 11 inserts new regulations 31B to 31F in the 2001 Regulations. The 2006 Act, in section 12, amended the provisions of the 1983 Act set out in new regulation 31B, to confer powers on registration officers to make determinations of a person’s entitlement to be registered other than in relation to determining applications for registration and objections. These new regulations provide for how these powers are to be exercised. They provide for the registration officer to undertake a review of a person’s entitlement to registration (new regulation 31D) and to maintain a list of such reviews (new regulation 31E). Provision is made for when such reviews must be heard (new regulation 31D) and how they are to be heard (new regulation 31F). New regulation 31C provides that this procedure does not apply in four specified circumstances, where it is clear that a person has ceased to satisfy the conditions for registration set out in section 4 of the 1983 Act, for the purposes of a determination under section 10A(5)(b) of that Act.

Regulation 12 inserts new regulations 31G to 31J in the 2001 Regulations. The 2006 Act, in section 10 and Part 1 of Schedule 1, provided for persons to apply to be entered in the register anonymously, where they show that their safety (or that of another person of their household) is at risk. New regulation 31G governs the procedure for applying for an anonymous entry, which must include a declaration by the applicant. New regulation 31H requires the registration officer to allow the application for an anonymous entry where the application is properly made and he is satisfied that evidence of the prescribed nature has been provided. That evidence can take one of the following forms: First, an order or injunction of a court - of a type specified in new regulation 31I - protecting the applicant (or another person of his household) from harassment or molestation. Secondly, an attestation made by a qualifying officer - such as the chief constable of a police force - that the safety of the applicant (or another person of his household) is at risk (new regulation 31J).

Regulation 13 amends regulation 32 of the 2001 Regulations. Appeals from the decision of the registration officer that a person was not entitled to be registered, or has ceased to satisfy the conditions for registration set out in section 4 of the 1983 Act will be governed by the same prescribed requirements as those which apply to appeals from decisions regarding an application for registration. These requirements are also to apply to appeals from decisions relating to anonymous registration.

Regulation 14 repeals regulation 33 of the 2001 Regulations, which prescribed circumstances for the purposes of section 10A(5)(b) of the 1983 Act. This conferred a power on the registration officer to determine in the circumstances so prescribed that a person had ceased to satisfy the requirements for registration set out in section 4 of that Act. However, the 2006 Act, in section 12(5)(b), substituted a broader power that is now subject to the procedure set out in the new regulations inserted by regulation 9. Consequential amendments are also made to regulations 34 and 36 of the 2001 Regulations.

Regulation 15 inserts new regulation 41A in the 2001 Regulations, which makes provision in relation to the content and location of an anonymous entry in the register. Regulation 16 makes amendments in consequence of anonymous registration.

Regulation 17 amends regulation 44 of the 2001 Regulations, to require the registration officer to include details of the total number of electors who have an anonymous entry in a document setting out information about the register, to be supplied to the Secretary of State.

Regulation 18 inserts new regulations 45A to 45H.

New regulation 45A requires the registration officer to maintain a record of anonymous entries. This record will contain details about the anonymously registered person, including those normally entered on the register. The registration officer must take proper precautions for the safe custody of the record. New regulations 45B to 45F provide for who is to have access to the record. The record is to be used only for the purposes of registration, elections, referendums, the summoning of juries, or of the police, security and intelligence services and other related organisations. The record may not otherwise be disclosed, except where this is ordered by a court.

New regulation 45G provides for the registration officer to issue to a person with an anonymous entry a certificate of anonymous registration. Regulation 45H provides that this certificate is the prescribed evidence to allow such persons to make donations to candidates at elections without their personal details being publicly reported.

Regulations 19 to 23 make amendments to the parts of the 2001 Regulations that govern absent voters and the issue and receipt of postal ballot papers in consequence of anonymous registration.

Regulation 24 amends the 2001 Regulations to make provision in relation to representations made by or on behalf of an elector that the electoral register contains a clerical error. The amendments to regulations 5 and 6 of the 2001 Regulations are to facilitate the use of electronic communications in making representations.

Regulation 25(3) inserts new paragraph (3) to regulation 36 of the 2001 Regulations that specifies the prescribed time for the purposes of section 13B of the 1983 Act

Section 13B of the 1983 Act (as amended by section 11 of the 2006 Act) allows alterations to be made to an electoral register in consequence of a court ruling or in order to correct a clerical error up to a prescribed time on the day of the poll. Regulation 26 inserts a new regulation 36A into the 2001 Regulations that provides that where a notice of alteration is issued by a registration officer on polling day as a result of a court ruling or to correct a clerical error, the registration officer must communicate the contents of the notice to the presiding officer. Where such communication takes place by way of telephone, the presiding officer is required to make a written record of the contents of the notice.

Regulations 27 and 28 amend regulations 92 and 98-112 of the 2001 Regulations, which relate to the supply of the electoral register. The amendments ensure that where a registration officer is required to supply a person with a copy of the electoral register, the register is taken to include any notices of alteration issued by the registration officer under sections 13B(3B) and (3D) of the 1983 Act.

Regulation 29 prescribes the form of corresponding number lists to be used at parliamentary elections at polling stations and for postal ballot papers. This is consequential on sections 30 (ballot paper design) and 31 of the 2006 Act.

Regulation 30 replaces references to counterfoils attached to ballot papers with references to the corresponding number list, following amendments made by section 31 the 2006 Act (replacement of counterfoils).

Regulations 31 to 34 amend 2001 Regulations to reflect the requirement introduced by section 14 of the 2006 Act that persons wishing to vote by post, by proxy or by postal proxy must provide their signature and date of birth when applying.

Regulation 32 deals with circumstances where a person is entitled to a waiver from the requirement to provide a signature.

Regulation 33 specifies that the registration officer may satisfy himself as to the authenticity of the personal identifiers provided from other records that he is entitled to inspect.

Regulation 34 provides that fresh signatures are to be required by every fifth anniversary of a person being recorded as a postal voter or postal proxy.

Regulation 35 specifies the contents of the record of personal identifiers that the registration officer must keep and provide at a parliamentary or local government election to a returning officer.

Regulations 39 specifies the procedure upon receipt of postal ballot papers for verifying the personal identifiers provided in postal voting statements.

Regulation 41 substitutes a new Form K, which collects relevant statistics on postal ballot papers. The new form is designed to collect information relating to the verification procedures in connection with personal identifiers.

Regulation 42 revises and updates the lists of health care professionals and others who may attest applications for proxy votes so that it also includes persons who may be caring for or treating persons with disabilities of a non-physical nature. It reflects amendments made by section 73 of the 2006 Act.

Regulations 43 and 44 make provision following section 35 of the 2006 Act. Section 35 amended Schedule 4 to the Representation of the People Act 2000 to remove the embargo on certain detained mental patients voting in person at polling stations. Where a detained mental patient is unexpectedly unable to vote in person (such as where he is refused permission to be absent in order to vote), he can appoint a proxy to vote for him. Such appointments may be made up to 5 p.m. on polling day.

Regulation 45 inserts a new regulation 86A into the 2001 Regulations. Where an elector has reported that he has lost or spoilt his ballot paper and a replacement has been issued to him, the original ballot paper is cancelled. The new regulation 86A sets out the procedure by which a cancelled postal ballot paper should be retrieved from a ballot box.

Regulations 46 and 47 and Schedule 2 to these Regulations substitute a revised form of elector's official poll card and proxy's official poll card and prescribe new forms of official postal poll card to be sent to electors and their proxies.

Regulations 48 to 53 are made in consequence of the introduction of new rule 31A of the elections rules requiring the returning officer to record the return of postal ballots. Regulation 51 makes provision for the marked list of postal voters and the list of proxy postal voters to be marked to record receipt where a postal voting statement.

Regulation 49 makes consequential amendments to the 2001 Regulations. Paragraph 137 of Schedule 1 to the 2006 Act adopted a defined term in relation to the special list relating to postal voters kept under paragraph 5(2) of Schedule 4 to the Representation of the People Act 2000 (c. 2), and this definition is now adopted in the 2001 Regulations.

Regulations 55 and 56 make provision for the supply and inspection of unmarked lists of absent voters in advance of an election. The new regulations require the registration officer to supply copies of documents to political parties and candidates and to permit inspection of those documents by members of the public.

Regulation 57 removes paragraph (8) of regulation 92, which had the effect of preventing the transfer of data in the full register to a processor outside the European Economic Area. A person who supplies information in the full register to any processor remains subject to the eighth data protection principle in Schedule 1 to the Data Protection Act 1998 (c.29.).

Regulation 58 replaces the offences in regulation 115 in order to bring the offences for breach of conditions on the use of information in full registers or unmarked special lists into line with that for misuse of documents after an election. It also creates offences in respect of the duties imposed by new regulations 45C to 45F on those who are supplied with the record of anonymous entries.

Regulation 59 inserts a new Part which makes provision requiring relevant registration officers to supply or disclose information in documents that have been used or marked at a parliamentary or local election and places conditions on the use of information in those documents. An offence for breach of those conditions is contained in section 66B the 1983 Act as regards Parliamentary election documents which was inserted by section 41(9) of the 2006 Act. Section 42 of that Act contains a parallel offence for local election documents.

Regulation 60 removes references in the 2001 Regulations to Maundy Thursday as a day to be ignored in certain electoral timetables, following amendments made by section 20 of the 2006 Act (Omission of references to Maundy Thursday).

Regulation 61 inserts new regulation 51AA in the 2001 Regulations. Where a person in his application for a postal vote asks for the ballot papers to be sent to an address that is different from the address that must be stated in the application, he must set out why his circumstances are such that this is required.

Regulation 62 amends regulation 57 of the 2001 Regulations, so that the registration officer must notify a person when they are removed from the record of proxies who are entitled to vote by post. It also qualifies the requirement to give notifications to absent voters under paragraphs (4B) and (4C) of regulation 57 to where this is practicable.

Regulation 64 amends regulation 74 of the 2001 Regulations to provide that a ballot paper envelope does not need to be marked with the number of the ballot paper where the the ballot paper envelope contains a window through which the number of the ballot paper can be displayed.

Regulation 65 makes amendments following the replacement by section 37 of the 2006 Act (as regards Great Britain) of the declaration of identity with a postal voting statement. References throughout the 2001 Regulations to declaration of identity, and associated references to a “declaration” or “declare” are altered to refer, as appropriate, to “postal voting statement”, “statement” and “state”.

Regulation 66 provides for new forms of postal voting statement to be used at parliamentary elections taken alone or in combination with certain other elections or referendums.

Regulation 67 makes transitional provision in relation to the attestation evidence that may be provided in support of an application for an anonymous entry.
