EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Relevant Authorities (Standards Committee) Regulations 2001 (“the 2001 Regulations”). They apply to relevant authorities in England, other than parish councils, and to police authorities in Wales.

The 2001 Regulations apply Part 5A (access to meetings and documents of certain authorities, committees and sub-committees) of, and Schedule 12A (access to information: exempt information) to, the Local Government Act 1972 (“the 1972 Act”) in relation to meetings of a standards committee, or a sub-committee of a standards committee, of an authority. These Regulations are made as a result of changes made by the Local Government (Access to Information) (Variation) Order 2006 (S.I. 2006/88) (“the 2006 Order”) to Part 5A and Schedule 12A which comes into force on 1st March 2006.

In Part 5A, section 100A(4) (admission to meetings of principal councils) of the 1972 Act permits a principal council to exclude the public from a meeting whenever it is likely that there would otherwise be a disclosure of exempt information to the public. Exempt information is defined in section 100I (exempt information and power to vary Schedule 12A) as the descriptions of information which are, for the purposes of Part 5A, for the time being specified in Schedule 12A to the 1972 Act.

The 2006 Order substitutes a new Schedule 12A for the previous Schedule 12A. Parts 1 to 3 of the new Schedule 12A apply in relation to principal councils in England. In Part 1 of the new Schedule 12A, some of the descriptions of information listed in Part 1 of the previous Schedule 12A are replaced by simpler and clearer descriptions. Similarly, in Part 2 of the new Schedule 12A, some of the previous qualifications are replaced by a public interest test. Consequential amendments are also made to sections 100F (additional rights of access to documents for members of principal councils) and 100I.

As a consequence of these changes, it has been necessary to amend paragraphs (1) and (4) of regulation 7 of the 2001 Regulations. Regulation 7(1) of the 2001 Regulations is amended to provide that, subject to paragraphs (2) to (4) of that regulation, Part 5A of the 1972 Act applies in relation to meetings of a standards committee, or sub-committee of a standards committee, of an authority to which these Regulations apply, as it applies to meetings of principal councils in England.

Regulation 7(4) of the 2001 Regulations applies Schedule 12A, with modifications, to certain meetings of a standards committee or sub-committee of a standards committee. The substitution of a new regulation 7(4) is required because Part 1 of the new Schedule 12A contains descriptions of exempt information which include information relating to a particular individual. This means that the modification previously included in regulation 7(4), that provided for “information relating to the personal circumstances of any person” to be exempt information, is no longer necessary. Apart from that modification, the modifications to Schedule 12A made by regulation 7(4), adding other descriptions of information that are not covered by any of the descriptions listed in Part 1 of the new Schedule 12A, are the same modifications as were previously included in relation to the previous Schedule 12A.

A full regulatory impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as it has no impact on the costs of business, charities, voluntary bodies or the public sector.
