2007 No. 1556

The National Institutions of the Church of England (Transfer of Functions) Order 2007

Supplementary

3.—(1) Any statutory provision, and any other instrument or contract, in force immediately before the appointed day shall have effect for the purposes or in consequence of the transfer of any function of the Central Board by virtue of Article 2 above, as if any reference therein to that Board were a reference to the Council.

(2) This Order shall not affect the validity of anything done by or in relation to the Central Board before the appointed day; and anything (including legal proceedings) which on that day is in process of being done by or in relation to that Board in connection with a function transferred by virtue of Article 2 above may be continued by or in relation to the Council.

(3) Anything done by the Central Board for the purposes of or in connection with a function transferred by virtue of Article 2 above which is in force immediately before the appointed day shall have effect, so far as required for continuing its effect on and after that day, as if done by the Council.

(4) The amendments specified in the Schedule to this Order shall have effect.
