EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order brings into force provisions in the Drugs Act 2005 (“the 2005 Act”). The provisions specified in Article 2(1) are brought into force on 1st April 2007 and the provisions specified in Article 2(2) are brought into force on the same date to the extent they are not already in force.

Section 10 of the 2005 Act introduces a requirement on a police officer to require a person from whom a sample has been taken under section 63B of the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984⁽²⁾ which reveals that a specified Class A drug may be present in that person’s body, and whom he requires to attend an initial assessment, to also attend a follow-up assessment. This requirement does not apply unless the relevant chief officer has been notified by the Secretary of State that arrangements for conducting follow-up assessments have been made at the police station in which the person is detained, and the notice has not been withdrawn.
