In particular it provides the Secretary of State with the power to serve notices requiring the production of documents that relate to the Secretary of State’s NHS counter-fraud functions and security management functions. Article 3(b) commences sections 76 to 78 of the 2006 Act in relation to offences under Chapter 3 of Part 4 of the 2006 Act in relation to England. Sections 76 and 77 make provision relating to circumstances where offences under Chapter 3 of Part 4 are committed by a body corporate or a partnership or other unincorporated association. Section 78 contains transitional modifications in respect of the penalties for offences under the 2006 Act committed in England and Wales, until the commencement of sections 154(1) and 281(5) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 (c.44), which increase the maximum terms of imprisonment which may be imposed by the magistrates’ courts.
