

SCHEDULE 2

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS AND SAVINGS

Annotation of the register (s. 1081)

105.—(1) Section 1081 of the Companies Act 2006 (annotation of the register) applies in relation to documents delivered to and certificates issued by the registrar on or after 1st October 2009, the content of such documents and certificates and material derived from them, subject to subparagraph (2)(b) below.

(2) The provisions of the 1985 Act or 1986 Order (and the registrar's former practice with respect to annotation of the register) continue to apply in relation to—

- (a) documents delivered to and certificates issued by the registrar before 1st October 2009, the content of such documents and certificates and material derived from them, and
- (b) documents delivered to and certificates issued by the registrar under the 1985 Act or 1986 Order on or after that date by virtue of a transitional provision or saving, the content of such documents and certificates and material derived from them.