EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations require any person intending to carry out a construction project with an estimated cost greater than £300,000 to prepare a site waste management plan.

The plan must be updated in accordance with the Regulations, with different requirements depending on whether the cost of the project is greater than £500,000.

The Regulations are enforced by the Environment Agency and the local authority.

Breach of the Regulations is an offence punishable—

- (a) on summary conviction, by a fine not exceeding £50,000, or
- (b) on conviction on indictment, by a fine.

An impact assessment of the effect that this instrument will have on the costs of business and the voluntary sector is available on the Defra website.
