EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order revises, from 1st February 2010, the limits applying to certain awards of employment tribunals, and another amount payable under employment legislation, as specified in the Schedule to the Order. The revisions made by this Order apply where the event giving rise to the entitlement to compensation or other payment occurred on or after 1st February 2010.

Under section 34 of the Employment Relations Act 1999, if the retail prices index for September of a year is higher or lower than the index for the previous September, the Secretary of State is required to change the limits, by Order, by the amounts of the increase or decrease. The revised amounts made by this Order reflect the decrease of 1.4% in the index from September 2008 to September 2009.

In making the calculation required by section 34, the figures are required to be rounded up in certain ways. This has resulted in three of the limits remaining the same and therefore they have not been included in this Order. The unchanged limits are those in sections 145E(3) and 156(1) of the Trade Union and Labour Relations (Consolidation) Act 1992 and that in section 120(1) of the Employment Rights Act 1996. These limits were last revised in the Employment Rights (Increase of Limits) Order 2008 (S.I. 2008/3055) and the current limits are set out in the Table at the end of this Explanatory Note.

The Order does not revise the remaining two of the specified limits, namely that in section 186(1)(a) and (b) of the Employment Rights Act 1996 and that in section 227(1) of that Act. These sums were increased from £350 to £380 from 1st October 2009 by the Work and Families (Increase of Maximum Amount) Order 2009 (S.I. 2009/1903). Article 3 of that Order excluded the operation of section 34 of the Employment Relations Act 1999 in relation to the sums increased in that Order on the occasion of an increase or decrease in the retail prices index for September 2009. Therefore those sums are not, on this occasion, revised in line with the retail prices index, but the limits are included in the Table below for information.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this Order as it has no impact on the costs of business.
