The Football Spectators (2010 World Cup Control Period) Order 2010

Made - - - - 25th January 2010
Laid before Parliament 27th January 2010
Coming into force - - 22nd February 2010

The Secretary of State makes the following Order in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 14(6) and 22A(2) of the Football Spectators Act 1989(1).

The Secretary of State considers that the provision made by article 2 of this Order is expedient in order to secure the effective enforcement of Part II of that Act.

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Football Spectators (2010 World Cup Control Period) Order 2010 and shall come into force on 22nd February 2010.

(2) In this Order—

“the Tournament” means the external tournament known as the 2010 FIFA (Fédération Internationale de Football Association) World Cup in South Africa, and

“Part II” means Part II of the Football Spectators Act 1989.

Control Period

2. Section 14(6)(a) of the Football Spectators Act 1989 shall have effect in relation to the Tournament as if, for the reference to five days, there were substituted a reference to ten days.

3.—(1) In relation to the Tournament, the period described in paragraph (2) below is a control period for the purposes of Part II.

(1) 1989 c. 37. Section 14 was substituted, together with sections 14A to 14J, for existing sections 14 to 17 by section 1(1) of, and paragraphs 1 and 2 of Schedule 1 to, the Football (Disorder) Act 2000 (c. 25). Section 22A was inserted by section 1(2) of, and paragraphs 9 and 18 of Schedule 2 to, the Football (Disorder) Act 2000; section 22A was amended by section 65 of, and Schedule 5 to, the Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006 (c. 38) and section 39(2) of the Identity Cards Act 2006 (c. 15).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(2) The period referred to in paragraph (1) above is the period beginning on 1st June 2010, being ten days before the day of the first football match which is included in the Tournament, and ending when the last match included in the Tournament (which, subject to postponement, is due to be on 11th July 2010) is finished or cancelled.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order describes the control period under the Football Spectators Act 1989 (“the Act”) for the 2010 FIFA (Fédération Internationale de Football Association) World Cup in South Africa. The control period begins on 1st June 2010, which is ten days before the first match in the tournament, and ends when the last match in the tournament is finished or cancelled. The last match is due to be played on 11th July 2010.

During the control period powers under sections 21A and 21B of the Act (summary powers to detain and refer to a court with a view to making a banning order) are exercisable. An individual subject to a banning order may be required to surrender his passport during a control period by virtue of section 19 of the Act. In addition, bail conditions can be imposed on an individual requiring him to surrender his passport during a control period under section 14A (banning orders made on conviction of an offence) and section 14B (banning orders made on complaint) of the Act.
