The Family Procedure Rules 2010

PART 36

TRANSITIONAL ARRANGEMENTS AND PILOT SCHEMES

Transitional provisions

36.1. Practice Direction 36A shall make provision for the extent to which these rules shall apply to proceedings started before the day on which they come into force.

Pilot schemes

36.2. Practice directions may modify or disapply any provision of these rules—

- (a) for specified periods; and
- (b) in relation to proceedings in specified courts, during the operation of pilot schemes for assessing the use of new practices and procedures in connection with proceedings.
