2010 No. 722

The Policing and Crime Act 2009 (Commencement No. 1 and Transitional and Saving Provisions) (England) Order 2010

Transitional and saving provisions

7.—(1) This article applies to an application, which is made under Schedule 3 to the 1982 Act on or after the first appointed day but on or before the second appointed day, for the grant of a licence under that Schedule in relation to a sexual entertainment venue.

(2) The local authority concerned must not determine any application to which this article applies until they have considered all such applications.

(3) Where the local authority grant such an application before the third appointed day in relation to premises to which article 6(1) applies, the licence does not take effect until the third appointed day.

(4) Paragraph (3) does not prevent any other licence granted on an application to which this article applies from having immediate effect.
