2011 No. 1197

The Trade in Animals and Related Products Regulations 2011

PART 5

Administration

Notifications and authorisations

30. Any notification or authorisation must be in writing, may be subject to conditions and may be amended, suspended or revoked by further notice in writing at any time.

Enforcement authorities

31.—(1) In these Regulations the enforcement authorities are county councils, district councils, Port Health Authorities, London boroughs (or, in the City of London, the Common Council of the City of London), metropolitan districts and unitary authorities.

(2) Where there is a Port Health Authority, London borough (or, in the City of London, the Common Council of the City of London), metropolitan district or unitary authority, any duty placed on a county or district council is performed by that authority.

[^{F1}(3) Where the Common Council of the City of London is acting as a local authority or a port health authority, that Council is the enforcement authority for live animal imports in all London Boroughs and within the Heathrow Airport border control post.]

Textual Amendments

F1 Reg. 31(3) inserted (14.12.2019) by The Official Controls \(Animals, Feed and Food, Plant Health Fees etc.\) Regulations 2019 \(S.I. 2019/1488\), regs. 1(1), 26(24)

Enforcement

32.—(1) At a border inspection post these Regulations are enforced—

- (a) in relation to animals by the Secretary of State [^{F2}other than at the Heathrow Airport border control post in cases where, in relation to animals, these Regulations are jointly enforced by the Secretary of State and the Common Council of the City of London]; and
- (b) in relation to products by the district council.

(2) Outside a border [^{F3}control post, in relation to animals (other than in relation to aquatic animals)] they are enforced by—

- (a) in all London boroughs, the Common Council of the City of London [^{F4}where the Council is acting as a local authority or a port health authority];
- (b) otherwise by the county council.

[^{F5}2A) Outside a border control post, official controls in relation to aquatic animals are enforced by the Secretary of State.]

- (3) Outside a border inspection post, in relation to products they are enforced by—
- (a) the district council (except in relation to animal feed, where it is the county council); or
 - (b) by the Food Standards Agency at any cutting plant, game-handling establishment or slaughterhouse, or premises at which the Agency enforces [^{F6}the Food Safety and Hygiene (England) Regulations 2013].

(4) In addition, in relation to products they are enforced by a general customs official in any place (other than the inspection facilities in a border inspection post) where goods are subject to customs supervision by that official under [^{F7}the Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Act 2018].

(5) The Secretary of State may direct, in relation to cases of a particular description or a particular case, that the Secretary of State may discharge any duty imposed on a local authority under this regulation.

[^{F8}5A) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a) or where the Secretary of State makes a direction under paragraph (5), the Secretary of State may delegate to the Director of Public Prosecutions functions in relation to the prosecution of an offence under these Regulations.]

[^{F9}6) Where a customs officer exercising a statutory function at any place under customs supervision discovers any animal or product suspected of being non-compliant, that officer must detain it and notify such detention to an authorised officer of the relevant enforcement authority.]

Powers of entry

[^{F10}33.—(1) An authorised officer of the Secretary of State or an enforcement agency may at any reasonable hour during normal working hours without prior notice enter any premises (except any premises used wholly or mainly as a private dwelling) if the officer believes that it is necessary to enter for the purpose of enforcing these Regulations.

(2) An authorised officer must, if requested to do so, produce a duly authenticated authorisation document.

- (3) A justice of the peace may sign a warrant to permit an enforcement officer to enter any premises, including a dwelling-house, if the justice on sworn information in writing is satisfied—
- (a) that there are reasonable grounds to enter those premises for the purpose of enforcing these Regulations; and
 - (b) that one or more of the conditions in paragraph (4) are met.
- (4) The conditions are—
- (a) that entry to the premises has been, or is likely to be, refused, and notice of the intention to apply for a warrant has been given to the occupier;
 - (b) that asking for admission to the premises, or giving such a notice, would defeat the object of the entry;
 - (c) that entry is required urgently;
 - (d) that the premises are unoccupied or the occupier is temporarily absent.
- (5) A warrant is valid for 30 days from the date of signature by the justice of the peace.
- (6) An authorised officer entering any premises which are unoccupied or from which the occupier is temporarily absent must leave them as effectively secured against unauthorised entry as they were before entry.
- (7) An authorised officer may—
- (a) be accompanied by such other persons (up to a maximum of three) as the officer considers necessary;
 - (b) bring onto the premises such equipment as the officer considers necessary.]

Powers of authorised officers

- 34. An authorised officer of the Secretary of State or an enforcement authority may—
- (a) inspect and examine any animal;
 - (b) inspect any product, or genetic material, including its packaging, seals, marking, labelling and presentation, and any plant or equipment used for or in connection with it;
 - (c) have access to, and inspect and copy any documents or records (in whatever form they are held), and remove them to enable them to be copied;
 - (d) have access to, inspect and check the operation of any computer and any associated apparatus used in connection with the records; and may require any computer records to be produced in a form in which they may be taken away;
 - (e) seize and retain anything required as evidence in proceedings under these Regulations;
 - (f) open any bundle, package, packing case, or item of personal luggage, or require any person in possession of or accompanying the same to open it and inspect the contents;
 - (g) take samples of any animal or product for laboratory tests, for checking against any relevant document relating to the animal or product or otherwise for checking compliance with these Regulations or any condition of import enforced by these Regulations.
 - ^{F11}(h) require the slaughter of any imported animal which is non-compliant with import or animal welfare requirements in these Regulations or the ^{F12}Official Controls Regulation] or any

Implementing Regulations and Delegated Regulations made under it, or suspected by the Secretary of State of posing a risk to animal or human health;

- (i) require the quarantine of any imported animal that is suspected by the Secretary of State of posing a risk to animal or human health.]

^{F13}Importation of animals or products constituting a risk to animal or public health

35.—(1) If imported animals or products are suspected by [^{F14}the appropriate enforcement authority][^{F15}or the Secretary of State] of constituting a serious risk to human or animal health or animal welfare, or, in a case of suspected non-compliance, the animals or products come from a region contaminated by an epizootic disease, an authorised officer of [^{F16}that enforcement authority][^{F17}or the Secretary of State] may require—

- (a) an investigation in order to confirm or eliminate that suspicion;
- (b) an investigation into the extent of any suspected non-compliance and to establish the import operator's responsibilities;
- (c) intensified official controls on consignments of animals or products from a particular region until such imports are no longer regarded by the officer as constituting such health risk;
- (d) the official detention of any of the animals or products;
- (e) appropriate measures to ensure that the person responsible for the animals or products remedies the non-compliance and prevents further occurrences of such non-compliance.

(2) In a case within paragraph (1)(a), the importer must assist the officer with establishing the region of origin.

(3) Where [^{F18}the appropriate enforcement authority][^{F19}or the Secretary of State] is satisfied that imported animals or products constitute a risk to animal or public health, an authorised officer of [^{F20}that enforcement authority][^{F21}or the Secretary of State, as appropriate] may, following written notice, take any reasonable action to ensure compliance with any rules laid down in accordance with [^{F22}Chapter 5 of Title II of the Official Controls Regulation], including—

- (a) taking samples for testing and ordering or performing veterinary treatments on animals;
- (b) ordering the unloading of animals and their transfer via another means of transport to a specified holding for a specified quarantine period (whether or not involving the postponement of the slaughter of animals);
- (c) the slaughter or killing of animals, provided that this is the most appropriate measure to safeguard human health as well as animal health and welfare;
- (d) restricting or prohibiting the placing on the market, the movement or the export of the animal or product, or requiring its return to the country of dispatch;
- (e) ordering the importer to increase the frequency and thoroughness of systematic checks and controls before importing further animals or goods from the same region;

- (f) ordering the isolation or closure, for an appropriate period of time, of all or part of a business operation (including any related internet and on-line sales of products that may constitute a risk to animal or human health) affected by the importation of an animal or product that constitutes a risk to animal or human health;
 - (g) the recall, withdrawal, removal or destruction of products;
 - (h) the treatment of products for human consumption, the alteration of labels or the provision of corrective information to consumers;
 - (i) the temporary suspension or withdrawal of the registration or approval of an affected establishment, plant, holding or means of transport concerned, or of an authorisation of a transporter;
 - (j) the use of the products for purposes other than those for which they were originally intended.
- (4) An authorised officer of the [^{F23}enforcement authority][^{F24}or the Secretary of State] must provide an affected business operator, or its representative, with—
- (a) written notification of the decision concerning the action or measure to be taken in accordance with this regulation, together with the reasons for that decision; and
 - (b) information on any right of review against such decision in accordance with regulation 35A.
- (5) All expenditure incurred as a result of actions taken by or on behalf of the [^{F23}enforcement authority][^{F24}or the Secretary of State] under this regulation is to be borne by the responsible operator.
- (6) In the case of the issue of false or misleading official certificates in England, or where there is evidence of abuse of official certificates, an authorised officer of the [^{F23}enforcement authority][^{F24}or the Secretary of State] may take appropriate measures, including—
- (a) the temporary suspension of the certifying officer from certifying any certificates related to any relevant trade;
 - (b) the withdrawal of the authorisation of a person to sign official certificates;
 - (c) any other measure believed by the officer to be necessary to prevent a reoccurrence of any non-compliance or abuse.]

[^{F25}Review of decisions by an appointed person

35A.—(1) Any person aggrieved by a decision made under these Regulations, other than any decision referred to in regulations 20 or 23, may request a review of that decision by a person appointed by the Secretary of State (“the appointed person”).

(2) Within 21 days of the appointment of the appointed person, written representations may be made by the aggrieved person to the appointed person.

(3) The appointed person must consider any written representations made when reviewing the disputed decision and must report in writing to the Secretary of State within 21 days from the expiry of the period in paragraph (2) with a recommended course of action resulting from the review.

(4) The Secretary of State must consider the report of the appointed person and promptly notify the owner of the outcome of the review and provide a copy of the report of the appointed person.

(5) A review, or right of review, does not affect the obligation on the designated authority to take prompt action to eliminate or contain the risks to human or animal health.]

Offences by bodies corporate

40.—(1) Where a body corporate is guilty of an offence under these Regulations, and that offence is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to have been attributable to any neglect on the part of—

- (a) any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate, or
- (b) any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, that person as well as the body corporate is guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation “director”, in relation to a body corporate whose affairs are managed by its members, means a member of the body corporate.

Offences by partnerships and unincorporated associations

41.—(1) Proceedings for an offence under these Regulations alleged to have been committed by a partnership or an unincorporated association may be brought in the name of the partnership or association.

(2) For the purposes of such proceedings—

- (a) rules of court relating to the service of documents are to have effect as if the partnership or association were a body corporate;

(b) section 33 of the Criminal Justice Act 1925(1) and Schedule 3 to the Magistrates’ Courts Act 1980(2) apply in relation to the partnership or association as they apply in relation to a body corporate.

(3) A fine imposed on a partnership or association on its conviction for an offence under these Regulations is to be paid out of the funds of the partnership or association.

(4) Where an offence under these Regulations committed by a partnership is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, a partner, that partner (as well as the partnership) is guilty of the offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

For these purposes, “partner” includes a person purporting to act as a partner.

(5) Where an offence under these Regulations committed by an unincorporated association is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, an officer of the association, that officer (as well as the association) is guilty of the offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

For these purposes, “officer” means an officer of the association or a member of its governing body, or a person purporting to act in such capacity.

Penalties

[^{F36}42. A person guilty of any offence under these Regulations is liable on summary conviction to a fine.]
